JANUARY 6, 2009 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 70 NO. 14

THIS TUESDAY

Our January Program Chair, Sue Matchett is in Washington DC to see if she can get some cheap tickets to the Obama inauguration, so I do not know what surprises are going to await us.

LAST TUESDAY

John Gera led a short meeting with Tony Straub, Mike Miller, Jim Robuck, Bill Hohl, Jim Enkelaar, Dan Snell, Steve Tyre, Norm Tyre and Phillip. All the other heavy hitters were out of town and should be fined severely when they return.

Topics of discussion were the newspapers in town, digital cameras, oral cancer, and hand-made American flags with each individual stripe and star individually sewn.

In listening to the news a few days ago about the Rose Parade, it was said that the Kiwanis Float will be the only float with handicapped riders.

7 KIWANIS MEMBERS NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS AS PROCLAIMED BY JERRY

1) The Vice-President will give a listing of the Program Chairman for each month to the Bulletin Editor.

2) The Program Chairman for that month will give a complete listing of the programs for his/her month prior to the first Tuesday of their month. This should include a name, title and "teaser" to encourage members to attend.

3) The Program Chairman will give a written biography of the presenter for that Tuesday to the Bulletin Editor after introductions.

4) I will promise to sell all my tickets to the Pancake Breakfast and Barbecue. These are the only two fund-raising events for the entire year.

5) I will invite a business associate or friend to attend a meeting as a guest of the club. This is why it is important to know what presenters there are for the future, especially if you know that person might be interested in the subject.

6) I will make a conscience effort to clear my calendar between 12 noon and 1:30 each and every Tuesday so I can attend its meetings.

7) I promise not to be an "onlooker" at Kiwanis, but be an active participant in everything that our club has to offer. This is why you joined a Service Club like Kiwanis in the first place? Isn't it?!!

OTHER EVENTS

The District Governor's official visit to Region 13 which includes Division 10 is Saturday, February 7, 2009, at the Double Tree Hotel located in Claremont. The cost is $ 50.00 for breakfast, a seminar presentation on growth and retention followed by a luncheon. The Governor will meet with club presidents at 8:00 a.m.. The event will conclude after lunch approximately 2:30 p.m..

The mid winter conference in San Diego was moved to the last Saturday in February and is not in conflict with our pancake breakfast. Registration information is on line at the District web site or should be with our club secretary, Sue Matchett. Our Club pays for registration.

Tickets for the Camellia Festival Pancake Breakfast will be going on sale at our first meeting in 2009. Make sure you get yours.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"An optimist stays up to see the New Year in. A pessimist waits to make sure the old one leaves." - Bill Vaughan

See you Tuesday and Happy New Year,
Jerry
