PROGRAM

James Trejo of the Edison Company will bring us:

"THE CALIFORNIA ENERGY CRISIS"

LAST WEEK

Our speaker, a member of the Alhambra Club, and apparently a lifelong missionary showed us that there is no free lunch by following his magic show with his religious message to darkest Temple City. His best line was that at Wheaton College he got two degrees and the President's daughter.

Me thinks his views were those of many of the religious right, which is outraged whenever prayer is banned from a classroom. We are a Christian nation and it is a denial of freedom of religion if a great majority has no rights. He threw in the clincher: 27 scientists believe in God.

Well, naturally if all set Yr. Ed. to thinking. Oh! Oh! He's thinking. Man the lifeboats! My World Almanac shows that about two-thirds of the U. S. population (1999 census) consider themselves to be of some denomination. About 40% are Catholic, 10% Southern Baptist, 5% Methodist, and the rest around 3 or 2% or considerably less. Incidentally, California has the greatest number of Asian-Pacific Islanders (about 4 million). The Muslims in political-religious countries get right to it: death to those converting.

THAT SUPER INTERCLUB

International Pres. Torres was the featured speaker at the traditional Interclub staged by Pasadena Kiwanis. At "will call" they admitted I had paid and I asked for a ticket. "What the hell," the lady said and gave me the best seat in the house. 4' from the Pres. He, as did many from the Philippines, joined the U.S. Navy early in WWII. He speaks many languages. He emphasized service, some of which prevented deaths. A nice sense of humor; congratulated all concerned with the Kiwanis Club float. He kept making reflexive waves. I sat next to a Gov. whose realm includes N. & S. Dakota and a chunk of No. Minnesota, I expounded my views to this ex-missionary nurse who served in Indonesia. I encountered a winter wind coming in from northern Minnesota.

PRESIDENT TORRES' CONCLUSION

"I will now answer questions. If a stupid question is asked, I'll do my level best to give an even more stupid answer." Only one person dared.
