JANUARY 17, 2006 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 69 NO. 3

THIS TUESDAY

Hubert Manning, local Temple City resident will give us detailed information on how to build a Temple City Stradivarius. You all remember Hubert who was our speaker a few months ago. He demonstrated and showed us the machine he invented to cut diamonds, After his visit, I dubbed him "Rube Goldberg".

LAST WEEK

Senior Planner for TC, Bob Dawson, gave us the background for the MUZ zone and annexation. The questions were flying so fast that poor Bob couldn't catch his breath...so by popular demand, he is returning January 24th. What can I say? maybe he liked the lunch.

OTHER HAPPENINGS

Well, my editorial must have worked. We had four more members this week in attendance. Keep up the good work!!

Mike Lepore paid major bucks for his birthday. Steve Tyre has attended all the necessary classes to make sure you pay all your taxes. He will be our featured speaker in the next few weeks. Frankly, I am Tyred of Taxes.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

We were honored to have 3 outstanding students from Emperor. Super teacher, Mr. Greg Giangregorio acted as their chauffeur and escort,

Melody Diep is in Mr. G's class and enjoys drawing, reading, singing, and playing the piano. The best things about school are her friends, the environment, and a new definition for Mr. G, Great and Groovy.

Renee Burton is in Miss Parrille's class and has 5 brothers and sisters. Renee enjoys reading, writing, and drawing. She likes the great teachers, recess, her guinea pigs. She wants to be an actress, work at a coffee house, and read all the classic books.

Esther Wong is in Ms. Carlson's class and has two older brothers. Esther enjoys dancing hula, playing piano, swimming, music, spending time with her family and God. Esther said, "the best things about school are the teachers are always helpful, the principal is kind and friendly, and the school is always clean."

BIRTHDAY BOY

Past President; Kiwanian of the Year; Distinguished Lt. Governor; and Hixon Fellow, and general harbinger of happiness, Mike Miller on January 26th. To quote long time member "Pop Gunst" when asked about his birthday, his response was "if I knew I was going to last this long I would have taken better care of myself."

KIWANIS KALANDAR

February 4 - Mid-Year Conference-South, San Diego
