PROGRAM

Gary Jones, of the Temple City Sheriff's Station will speak on:
"The Volunteer Program"

LAST WEEK

Thanks to Jerry J., we had Ben Molnar reveal the perils of teaching at opposite sides of the globe. Germany is bad news. Ben told of an incident in China where a U.S. teacher thought she had a contract but the police apparently searched her lodging while she was away. The police in effect said, "contract? What contract?" Ben took us on a tourist's tour of China. Tourists are welcome.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Emperor teacher Mr. Joe Turner brought 3 outstanding students.

Jessica Clark loves to sing, act, and dance. The best things about school are the teachers, the principal, the staff, and all her friends.

Matthew Arroyo likes football, basketball, baseball, and running. Matthew wants to go to college, be financially stable, and to be a long-distance runner. Matthews parents were also on hand to see him receive his awards.

Maryjoie Garcia enjoys reading books, and singing. Maryjoie thinks the teachers are great, and the library has lots of books. Maryjoie wants straight A's, to become a full-time nurse, and to be an athlete.

REMINDER! CAL-NEV-HA GOV. LES WIXON COMETH

Official Visit to Div. 10.

Feb. 6, 6:00 p.m., social; dinner at 7:00. Brookside, at the Pasadena Muni Golf Course $30.00. Please call Pres. Mike Miller. We should have a good turn-out, particularly because he attended our Installation Dinner.

ANNIVERSARY

Not, Pres Mike, a birthday but

Jan 16, Sara and Yr. Ed. Number: 59 if you must know.

BEST SPORTS COMMENT OF THE WEEK

Off the A.P. Wire (in the Star-News about Pete Rose) An expert said that Rose has cured himself. "It certainly can happen," said Keith Whyte, executive director of the National Council on Problem Gambling. "It's probably a little more prevalent than the Immaculate Conception, but not a lot." and speaking of sports, Yr. Ed's surgeon son was visiting when Moses Malone popped a knee and it was said that he might be out for a week. "More like months," my son snorted. We shall see.

AND IN CONCLUSION

All about the S.U.V. in the latest New Yorker. Quoting the happy marketing executive: "The Only time these S.U.V.'s are going to be off-road is when they miss the driveway at 3 A.M." The article says, if you want something big, heavy, and comforting, minivans, with their unit-body construction, is much better in accidents.

See you Tuesday,
