THIS TUESDAY

It's Utility day! Helen Shaw from Southern California Gas Company and Elisa Clifford from Southern California Edison will speak to us about all the customer services they offer and all the helps they can give. Perhaps Elisa can tell us why Mr. Happy #2 is not paid more in retirement benefits so he can properly feed his 124 pound dog.

LAST TUESDAY

Lt. Governor Dr. Bob Pierre made his official visit. His opening remarks included little known facts: he was a licensed airplane pilot at 16, the main cause of death in Minnesota is carbon monoxide poisoning. After moving to sunny So. Cal. he was offered a professorship in pathology at USC, even though her was an internist.

A club in the Wilshire area is the first "Kiwaniis Next" club with over 120 attorneys in one building meeting only once a month, dedicated to service only and forgetting the social part. It sounds like a prerequisite to forget your social skills. We are now known as a "Classic" club. I like that!

Kiwaniis International does not give importance to Perfect Attendance anymore. Key Club Lt. Governor Dorothy Yen has said that almost all Key Clubbers have never met a sponsoring Kiwanian.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Dr. Doug Sears and new teacher Lois Billings brought 2 great students of be honored, Lois has some ties in the community through real estate and insurance. Both students are in Mr. Andrew Jahan's class at the Junior Academy.

Tyler Claborn has 3 brothers and sisters and enjoys video games, basketball and mythology. The best things about school are the teachers, history, and P.E.. Tyler's goals are to build a super computer, improve in math, learn to program computers, and to graduate.

Debi Calderon enjoys softball and hip-hop dancing. The best things about school are her friends, homework, and freedom. Debi has goals building a robot to do her homework, get good grades, do good in school, and to graduate.

BIRTHDAY AND WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. Happy #1 claims he was born on January 26th.

The club will pay the $ 35.00 fee, but it must be reserved before January 26th. Contact Pres. Elmer or Mr. Happy at our next meeting.

Jim Enkelaar is well on his way to earning the newly named "Red Round Robbin" patch for interclubs. At Tuesday's meeting, Jim gave a brief history of TC Kiwanis Interclubbing.
