JANUARY 24, 2006 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 69 NO. 4

THIS TUESDAY

Temple City Senior Planner, Robert Dawson will make his return engagement (by popular demand) to give use more info on the Mixed Use Zone and Annexation.

LAST WEEK

Hubert Manning (also back by popular demand) showed us his collection of violins that he has made or collected through the years. This is truly a remarkable man who not only has a desire to explore how things are made, but he wants to build each part by hand. Hubert is Temple City's hidden treasure.

PASSING OF AL DRIVER

Al Driver would have celebrated his 60th year in Kiwanis on September 11th. Al was 96 years old and was a pioneer in the retail furniture business and Kiwanis. A memorial service to celebrate his life will be held January 28th at 9 a.m., Rose Hills, Gate 17, Rainbow Chapel.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

We were honored to have 2 outstanding students from the Community Learning Center. CLC teacher, Mr. Ron Bridges accompanied the students along with a mom and cousin,

Sasha Barrios is in Mrs. Roozee's class and enjoys soccer, writing, lessons, and reading new information. The best thing that ever happened to Sasha was starting Independent Study. Goals are to get a degree in English and become a lawyer. O well, we do need another one don't we?

Ryan Nuñez is in Mr. Bridges class and enjoys sports, exercising, socializing, and education. Best thing to happen to Ryan was getting the award today. Goals are to get a 4.0 GPA throughout high school, get back to TCHS, and get on a good sports team.

THE NEED IS GREAT

Last week a fire destroyed several primary classrooms at Emperor School. Officials believe the fire was started by an arsonist. Regardless of the origin, the students and staff are in great need of assistance. The appeal is directed to all readers of this bulletin whether you are a current member, past member, relative, friend or any other interested community member.

Two separate plans have been proposed. First, a request for donations to be made by check to the Kiwanis Club of Temple City marked for Emperor School. These donations to be totaled, the sum to be matched by the Kiwanis Club ($1,000.00 minimum). Second, from our upcoming Pancake Breakfast, 100% of the proceeds from ticket sales will be donated to the School. All expenses of the Breakfast to be borne by the club.

All funds from both proposals to be donated directly to Emperor School for use by the staff in replacing materials, equipment, books, etc.

Please make checks payable to the Kiwanis Club of Temple City and bring them to the next meeting, or mail them directly to the Club at PO Box 156. Please respond ASAP as the need is great and immediate.

KIWANIS KALANDAR

January 20 - Cal-Nev-Ha Governor Patti Barsotti official visit to Div. 10
January 21 - Concert at TC Park to benefit Emperor School, 4:00 to 5:30 p.m.
February 4 - Mid-Year Conference-South, San Diego
February 25 - The BIG Pancake Breakfast
April 21-23 - Key Club District Convention

See you Tuesday, Jerry
