JANUARY 24, 2012 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 73 NO. 17

THIS TUESDAY

Mayor of Rosemead and Kiwanis Member Steven Ly will speak to us about what else? Rosemead and Kiwanis.

LAST TUESDAY

Mayor Tom Chavez was our speaker for the day. Mayor Chavez was elected to the Council about 3 years ago and has served as Mayor for the past 11 months. In my opinion this Council is just what the doctor ordered to repair a damaged image brought on by scandal that rocked our city. This Council has enacted protocols and procedures that will help in preventing this sort of behavior in the future. Mayor Chavez has spoken at conferences on the subject of ethics. Besides his full time career as an attorney he also is an adjunct professor at Pasadena City College lecturing soon to be lawyers about ethics in the work place and more importantly, in government.

Some of the accomplishments of Mayor Chavez and the Council have been renewing the ecumenical council of churches and synagogues, an opportunity to "Meet with the Mayor" twice a week at City Hall, first ever joint session with the Council and Parks & Recreation, attended the Conference of Mayors in Baltimore, Maryland, attended our Annual Barbecue by welcoming our guests, establish the Youth Committee, mural and Walter Temple bust unveiling at the Civic Center, hosted the International Youth Foundation, co-hosted the Chinese Cancer Relay for Life.

Some items that the Council are working on are: The Rosemead Beautification Project, developing the old Alpha Beta property after 24 years, establishing pocket parks, and making sure the Gateway Center begins building at Las Tunas and Rosemead, making do without the Community Redevelopment Agency, and how to increase city services with less money.

Part of being a good Mayor is attending various events by representing the City. Our Mayor represents the entire Council very well. I covered 207 events in Temple City photographically in 2011. Mayor Chavez attended at least 150 of them. You might ask "why is he in the paper so much", the answer is simple, "because he was there!".

OTHER ITEMS

Sponsor spaces are available for the Div. 10 Directory. Give your business card and $25 to Rich Wenzel. Hopefully it will be out by September 30, 2012.

Pancake breakfast tickets need to be sold now. You don't want to go back to working a booth for 3 days in the park, do you? Any extra children tickets that are paid for will go to the Maryvale girls that would like to attend the pancake breakfast. Please be generous for the girls. Sell those pancake tickets or give them to your friends at $6 per adult and $3 per child

President Rich is not in the "I'm workin' on it" mode and has planned a Inner club with San Gabriel Kiwanis on Thursday February 9th 12:00 at the San Gabriel Hilton. Lunch should be the same price as our lunch (Whoever thought the words Bahooka and Hilton would be used in the same sentence). The program will be dedicated to Hugh O'Brien honorees.

Troop 156 at Longden School would like Barbecued Kiwanians to help (whoops, I got that wrong, they want Kiwanians to Barbecue, you know that still does not sound good) for a hot dog barbecue for their annual Pinewood Derby at Memoli Hall 1 PM Saturday, January 28.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

We honored two outstanding students from the Dt. Doug Sears Learning Center. Pictured with the proud students are their teachers Mr. Andrew Jahan and Mrs. Yvonne Rivera.

Jeffrey is 16 years old and in the Independent Study Program. Jeffrey has an older brother and enjoys playing the guitar and video games. He said, "The best things about the DDSLC are the great teachers, curriculum, and working at my own pace." Jeffrey's favorite memory was getting his first report card from the Learning Center. Personal goals are to graduate high school, go to college, and pursue a career in video game design.

Charlee is 16 years old, has a younger brother and enjoys music, softball, volleyball, and her friends. Charlee said, "The best things about the DDSLC are the teachers and staff, advice I receive, and the small environment". Personal goals are to graduate from a two-year college and transfer to a four-year university and earn a Bachelors Degree.

KIWANIS KALANDAR

January 24 - Mayor and Rosemead Kiwanis Member Steven Ly

January 31 - Chief Deputy Assessor Dr. Christopher Carlos on taxpayer services.

February 14 - Valentines Day, Camellia Festival Royal Court debut at our meeting.

February 25 - The Big Pancake Breakfast before the Camellia Festival Parade.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"A life spent making mistakes is not only more honorable, but more useful than a life spent doing nothing." -- George Bernard Shaw
