PROGRAM

It's a grand one. You all should start getting psyched up.
It's just too hot to reveal at this time.

LAST WEEK

Jerry J. Keened for the Good Old Days with Grandma.

Gary Jones keened for the Good Old Days in such rapid fire that a Court Reporter would have cried for the judge's help to make the witness slow down.

Gary brought us news of the Sheriff's Teen Traffic Offender Program. If law enforcers witness dangerous driving a ticket can be written but if law enforcement doesn't witness it and you do, you can report it and an officer will call on the parents(s). Get the license plate #, make, color, male or female, location, and time/date. 6000 teenagers die each year.

Our speaker complimented us in reciting the Pledge of Allegiance, in the fact that we made it all one sentence, "One Nation Under God" with no commas.

STUDENTS-OF-THE-MONTH

Community Learning Center teachers Mr. Ron Bridges and Mrs. Carolyn Roozee brought a smiling Jobe Jones.

Jobe (JJ) enjoys snowboarding, music, clothes and cars. The best things about school are learning history, meeting people, and learning new skills. JJ would like to build the fastest muscle car in the world. I would personally pay $$$ to see him race the car against Bob Tyler and Chuck Shaw. I possibly would pay a little more if Pres. Mike Miller were driving.

GOV. LES WIXON'S VISIT

Feb 6. It's only $25, says Mike Miller. At Brookside in Pasadena
Call Mike. Social at 6:00; Dinner at 7:00

GOLF, GOLF, GOLF

A putter was auctioned off to Mike Lepore
Pres. Mike helped the Key Club with something called Golf.

PEOPLE FOR PEOPLE

Wrote our club, thanking us for the $25 per month for this worthy cause.

CAMELLIA FESTIVAL JUDGING

Feb 12 - Live Oak Park for the judging. Steve Montesanti recalls that in his youth he didn't make it. Possibly he was a strong eleventh in a field of twelve.

PANCAKER

Feb 28 - We will put it on. If, that is, we can get into the building.

AUTHENTIC GRAFITTI

Make love, not war. Heck, do both: get married!
It's hard to make a comeback when you haven't been anywhere.

See you Tuesday,
