PROGRAM

Bob Tyler will have an Eagle Scout tell you what it takes to become one.

LAST WEEK

David Tran left Vietnam 30 years ago in the hold of a cargo ship. He was one of the 100 who were cooped up. There were no toilets. The stench was something else. Singapore wouldn't take them and suggested the Phillipines but things took a turn for Guam and the U.S. took the care of them and David ended up in the United States. Possibly at a future date he can tell us what he did after he arrived.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Cloverly teacher Mrs Pat Wenzel brought 2 great students.

Gabriel Jimenez is in Mrs. Stoke's 6th grade class. He enjoys dancing, singing, and sports. Gabriel was King of the Camellia Court in 2000, He wants to become a better dancer, invent something great, and to get a scholarship.

Gilia Tam is in Mrs. Wenzel's class and enjoys swimming, her friends, and reading fiction books. Gilia wants to participate more in class, get better grades in math, and get good grades in social studies.

AND IN CONCLUSION (Courtesy of The American Legion)

Over breakfast, a woman said to her husband, "I'll bet you don't know what day this is." "Of course I do," he answered, as if offended. Then he left for the office. At 10 a.m., the doorbell rang. When the woman opened the door, she was handed a box of a dozen long-stemmed red roses. At 1 p.m., a foil-wrapped box of her favorite chocolates arrived. Later, a boutique delivered a designer dress.

The woman couldn't wait for her husband to return home.

"First flowers, then chocolates and a dress!" she exclaimed. I've never had a more wonderful Groundhog Day in my life!"

SEE YOU TUESDAY,
