PROGRAM

Unless there is a change, we will have a video on
"MAIL FRAUD"

LAST WEEK

The U.S. Post Office Inspector for the area including Temple City, and two assistants, presented the netherworld of thieves who raid your personal mailbox and brazenly remove the U.S. Mail boxes from the streets. In the good old days the latter activity, says Yr. Ed. would bring to town battalions of heavily armed gov'ment forces spoiling for a fight and a judge sending the culprits to Leavenworth for 15 solid years. Last week we learned that brake fluid was just dandy for erasing original amounts so that higher values could be substituted.

Mike Lepore showed great skill in hiding the dancing gavels. Yr. Ed. last week referred to Robuck's Grand Old Flag bringing on "lip syncing." Correct that: It's lip-synching."

STUDENTS-OF-THE-MONTH

Sally Stokes, teacher at the award winning Cloverly School brought three outstanding students.

Brooke Becher like soccer, basketball, drawing, volleyball and swimming. Brooke would like to build her own sealife aquarium with tamed animals so she could swim with them.

Carolynn Vo enjoys basketball and playing Chinese jump rope. The best things about school are her friends, learning new things and its fun!

Winson Kuo said the best thing that happened to him was when his grandpa, aunts, and uncles came from Taiwan for Thanksgiving. He wants good grades, get a scholarship and go to college.

DIRECTOR'S MEETING REPORT

Jerry Jambazian reported that it would be lively, indicating that there might, in the mode, be a fallings out. It turned out that Scooters as prizes carried with them the danger of liability. A possible Grand Prize to hype up the participation in the Annual Grand BBQ was a free trip. Travel agent to be consulted.

KIWANIS MID-YEAR SOUTH CONFERENCE

Feb 21 At the Burbank Hilton. All the details in the Cal-Nev-Ha Mag.

AN ANNIVERSARY & A BIRTHDAY

Feb. 10 Pat and John Peebles

Feb. 12 Bill Perini

AND IN CONCLUSION

Three buddies die in a car crash, and they find themselves at an orientation in heaven. Each man is asked, "When you're lying in your casket and friends and family are mourning, what would you most like to hear them say about you?"

The first man says, "I'd like to hear them say that I was a great doctor and a family man."

The second man says, "I'd like to hear that I was a wonderful husband and schoolteacher who made a huge difference in children's lives."

The third man says, "I'd like to hear them say, 'Look! He's moving!'"

See you Tuesday,
