FEBRUARY 11, 2003 TUESDAY NOON VOL. 66 NO. 20

PROGRAM

A double header:

1. Your helpmate is invited to be your Valentine
2. The Key Club officers will give us:
"An Update on Key Club Activities" (The new Lt. Gov. of Div. 10 is Anthony Ma, who appears to be a winner. More on him below)

LAST WEEK

James Trejo of So. Cal. Edison not only brought us up to date but was very informative in answering questions. We liked the news that they are petitioning the Commission to cut rates at midyear. James has not been reachable but Yr. Ed's try at getting details on the rate cut, led him through a maze of button pushing and no returned call from "Media Relations."

It was good to have Elmo back with us.

Jerry Jambazian voiced his denunciation of the Pasadena Star News coverage to the effect that the Camellia Festival was in jeopardy. City Mgr Martin wrote that the Chamber of Commerce was not called, nor was the chair (Marie Corrigan), nor was the City Manager. Good news that Wells Fargo is celebrating its opening at Temple City Blvd. and Camellia. by giving $10,000 to the Temple City Schools Educational Foundation. Ray Gudie has completed his successful sales of Entertainment Books.

VALENTINES WELCOME!

Mention of this was overlooked at our last meeting. Our usual invitation to your valentine is extended.

REPORT ON THE LT. GOV'S OFFICIAL VISIT TO DIV. 10

Yr. Ed. did go. When each club's delegation, one by one was asked to stand up Div. 10 Lt. Gov. Anthony Ma promptly stood up with Yr. Ed which made us look better but four would have been better. The University Club's chicken was far above the much maligned bird.

JERRYS STUDENT OF THE MONTH

Pat Wenzel from Cloverly School brought Nick Pacheco, and Diana Vu. It took our speaker James Trejo from Edison to set us straight about the "cards" that Nick was talking about. Crazy Me! I thought it was the old fashioned playing cards. No! No! it's called Yu-gi-oh.

Diana likes the teachers, recess, and learning new things. Her goal is to make it to the 7th grade.

JACKIE MILLHAM: HONORARY MEMBER

Our Board of Directors voted to make Jackie an Honorary Member. Good!
