"THE CAMELLIA CLUB"
TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA
Chartered August 8, 1939

FEBRUARY 12, 2008 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 71 NO. 7

THIS TUESDAY

A Valentines Day Special. The program will be Bea Romano who was with us previously playing the Hammered Dulcimer. You are invited to bring your spouse or significant other for this special program. The newly crowned Camellia Festival Royal Court will also make their official visit.

LAST TUESDAY

Chuck Shaw did is usual best explaining how and where we get our water. Chuck began his career in water 42 years ago as a meter repairman. Through the years he rose through the ranks and and is now in management. There was just 3" of rainfall last year, this year they are hoping for 17". All the levy's in Northern California are in bad shape are are susceptible to a disaster in the event of a major earthquake. There are 3 basins in our area, the Raymond, Main SGV, and the Central Basin.

Chuck praised William Mulholland for the 233-mile Los Angeles Aqueduct, completed in November, 1913, took water from the Owens Valley in Central California in a project requiring over 2000 workers and 164 tunnels. Water reached a reservoir in the San Fernando Valley on November 5. At a ceremony that day Mulholland spoke his famous words about this engineering feat: "There it is. Take it."

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Cloverly School was recognized with 3 outstanding students along with their teacher, Mr. Joe Turner.

Adrienne Vuong enjoys drawing, solving riddles, math problems and puzzles. Best things about school are learning new things, making friends, and playing sports. Goals are to get good grades, go to college, get a good job, and create a new invention.

Cheyenne Parker enjoys reading, drawing, and playing the electric keyboard. Cheyenne likes all her teachers, school activities, and how the school provides resources for projects. Goals are to build a art museum, graduate high school, go to college, and to become a teacher.

Kimberly Vong has a younger brother and enjoys playing the cello. Best things about school are pre-algebra, recess, and GATE. Kimberly has goals of being less shy, build a music school for the underprivileged, get into Algebra at the end of the year, getting into Math Field Day again, and play the cello for a long time.

OTHER HAPPENINGS

The Pasadena Kiwanis Club will be visiting us February 19th. We will have no program that day as we will be putting the final touches on the Big Pancake.

Secretary Chuck Shaw is making a pitch for the Mid-Winder Conference March 1st. If you are new to Kiwanis it is a wonderful way to get acquainted. Let him know so you can car pool.

Make sure you turn the money in to Mr. Happy#2 Bob Tyler. You don't want to know what happens if you give it first to Mr. Happy#1.

John Chandler is requesting that you donate tickets to Maryvale and others. Either adult or children would be appreciated. Please try and turn them in today as we are expecting about 30 girls from Maryvale.

Jim Enkelaar shared with us that his daughter lives in Glendale, AZ, site of the recent thumping of the New England Patriots. Equal time to Dan Snell next week.

Tony Euredjian's wife decided she wanted a different look, so she clipped off Tony's mustache. We all deecided that Tony looked better and younger.

The following came to our club via e-mail: "Our family has recently had some financial bad luck, and although we had not invited a hoard of relatives to our home we still wanted something for Thanksgiving. How could we do it? My son attends CLC and when the gift from the Kiwanis came well, Thanksgiving was on! Plus many other meals full of wonderful left overs." Thank You

Our club will be recognized with the 2007 Honorary Service Award by the PTA at their Founder's Day Dinner, Thursday, February 21, 6:00 p.m. at Alhambra/San Gabriel Elks Lodge.
