FEBRUARY 13, 2007 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 70 NO. 7

THIS TUESDAY

You are invited to bring your spouse or significant other for our annual Valentines meeting. Hopefully this will be a "G" rated Kiwanis program, not like one we had in the past. If you like it...Lisa Montesanti is responsible. If you don't like it, Steve Montesanti is responsible.

"Early Romances of Southern California"

LAST TUESDAY

Pasadena Star News Editor Larry Wilson gave us all the details of creating a daily newspaper. Larry had been with the Star News 20 out of the 120 years. He is a 4th generation Pasadeanan who started out as I did delivering the Independent and Star News as a young boy.

It has been a tough time financially for the newspaper industry, more and more people are getting their news through other sources, such as the internet. The paper hopes to make a 20% penetration into the community it serves. Young people are more likely to get their news from "The Daily Show" on cable rather than the daily newspaper. Journalist tend to be more liberal than conservative. Surprise!!

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Cloverly teacher, Mrs. Pat Wenzel brought 3 great students to be honored.

Leslie Tuong is in Ms. Tenney's class and enjoys playing with her sister, watching TV, piano, and drawing. She likes the great teachers, good rules, and the good lunches.

Catherine Tsai is in Mrs. Stokes class and enjoys drawing, writing, studying animals, swimming, basketball, reading, and leaning the Japanese language.

Haylie Roach is in Mrs. Wenzel's class and likes the nice teachers, her friends, and the fun activities.

Goals are to be a veterinarian, travel to different countries, and get good grades.

OTHER NOTES

• You need to sell your pancake breakfast tickets and turn the money into Mr. Happy #2, Bob Tyler. Please let John Chandler know if you have extra kid's tickets that you would like to donate to Maryvale Orphanage.

• We received a thank you note from recent CLC Students of the Month and their teacher, Ms. Lois Billings.

• Super Interclub Chairman IPP Jim Enkelaar has lined up an Interclub with the Rosemead Club on Thursday, February 15th. Let him know Tuesday if you can attend at the old California Christian Home which is now called California Mission Inn. Jim will give you directions at your own risk.

• Key Club President Jessica Tang has been named incoming Key Club Lt. Governor. This says something great is happening at the High School when 4 out 5 years, the Lt. Governor has come from Temple City.

• Farm City Exchange takes place March 20,21. Young folks will be coming down from the Cental Valley to take in the sights. Housing is needed for the 20th. Let President Elmer know.

•Walter Shatford was up for his 3 week perfect attendance, but decided to catch a cold.

•Don't forget the candidates forum Monday night at the Women's Club - 7:30 p.m..

JOHN GERA SAYS HELP!

Only 9 members have signed up to work the Pancake Breakfast. Please save John the trouble of having to call you. You call him! You sell those tickets!!!

MID-YEAR CONFERENCE

President Elmer, Mike Miller, Chuck Shaw, and Bill Hohl will be traveling to Ontario for the big conference. IPP Jim Enkelaar might be one step closer to his "Round Robin" patch if they have an Interclub outside the Division.
