FEBRUARY 17, 2004 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 67 NO. 20

PROGRAM

1. A speaker from the Los Angeles Philharmonic will tell us all about:
"The New Disney Hall"
That's that new crazy monster in downtown L.A.
2. Valentine's celebration. Bring your loved one.

LAST WEEK

We got the U. S. Mail Service film on the perils of identity theft. It was followed by a Director's Meeting. The vote was to give the traditional $200.00 to help finance the Temple City High School on their Washington trip.

THANK YOU, DAVID AGAJANIAN

Steve Tyre brought us the good news that David Agajanian at Dangelus Disposal has donated $325.00 toward purchase of gifts to be auctioned off at our annual BBQ.

PANCAKE TICKETS WANTED

John Chandler would like you to donate your surplus (but paid for) Pancake Breakfast tickets to the Maryvale kids. Get them to John. He will appreciate it and it will be a treat for the kids.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Assistant Principal, Trang Lai, brought 3 outstanding students from Emperor.

Shirley Deng likes to read, hang out with her friends, basketball, and drawing. The things about school are the teachers, her friends, and learning.

Ivy Vuong enjoys swimming, tennis, drawing, basketball, dogs, and math. She wants straight A's, to run a mile in less than 9 minutes, and to make it to the swim team.

Chris Lopez likes playing baseball, basketball, and running. Chris thinks Emperor is #1 in education including the commitment of the teachers to further their education.

MID-YEAR SOUTH CONFERENCE

Feb 21 A wonderful chance to join Mike Miller at the Burbank Hilton.

THE GOVERNOR LEX WIXON SHOW

We made the Interclub. Pres. Mike Miller, Sec'y Chuck Shaw, Bob Tyler, and Yr. Ed. were present when the roll was called but Bob and Chuck went AWOL before the big time Speechathon. Les Wixon, obviously in love with his job and in particular the 5,000 sponsored youth, the 5,000 being the highest number in all of Kiwanis International. Many have gotten a college education, thanks to Kiwanis. Our own Lt. Gov. Craig Wallace, got the coveted Dunlop Award, Temple City's fibrillator being mentioned.

AND IN CONCLUSION

Best of all of the yuks about that Super Bowl half-timers:
"The two of them will each get 15 yards for illegal use of the glands"

See you Tuesday,
