THIS TUESDAY

CEO of the Chamber of Commerce, Linda Payne, will bring us up to date on all the new projects in Temple City.

LAST WEEK

Enrolled Agent Franklin Reudel gave us his "no nonsense" approach to saving money on your taxes. Enrolled Agents are not to be confused with CPA's. EA's can take you all the way to the steps of Tax Court. Frank's advice was to keep accurate records, keep a log of mileage, when asked a question, don't look at the ceiling.

Frank also became a Sponsor for our Pancake Breakfast. Thank you to Helen Hoffman for her generous donation for our award winning bulletin. Who was the wise guy that encouraged Pres. Jim to step up the fines?

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Honorary members, CLC Principal Dr. Doug Sears and Rod Kingry brought 2 outstanding students to be honored.

Paulina Ramirez is 17 years old and is in Mr. Rios and Kingry's class. Paulina enjoys going out with her friends, going to the movies, and family. The best things about school are her teachers, and school secretary Suzie Ten Napel. Goals are to return to TCHS, graduate, and get her driving permit.

Michael Bermel is 17 years old and is in Mr. Rios and Kingry's class. Michael enjoys video games, basketball, football, TV, computers, and friends. Michael's goals are to join the Navy, make mosquitoes extinct, cure AIDS and the common cold, return to TCHS, run a mile and a half in 12 minutes, and make lots of money.

DO YOU REMEMBER 1973?

Lou Merritt gave me a Kiwanis bulletin from September 25, 1973. Postage for the bulletin was 8¢. There were 6 Honorary Members, 13 Senior Members, and 53 Active Members. That is a total of 72 members. The only members that are still with us are Lou Merritt, Elmer Black, John Chandler, Gordon Howard, Jerry J, Walt Shatford, Bob Shepard, and Joe Startin.

CALLING ALL MEMBERS

This is your opportunity to display your cooking skills at our Annual Pancake Breakfast this Saturday morning. Report for duty at 6:00 a.m.

Kudo's to new member Art Luna for coming up with the idea of Sponsors.

We are expecting a big crowd this year as proceeds will be used for the Emperor Fire Relief Fund.

KEY CLUB FUNDRAISER

Our Key Club has made arrangements with Applebees (Las Tunas & Rosemead) for a dinning fundraiser Tuesday, February 28. Come eat at Applebees between 5-9 p.m. and 15% of your bill will be donated to our Key Club who in turn will donate the proceeds to the Emperor School fire relief project.

DAYS TO BE REMEMBERED

March 1 - Steve & Monica Tyre, Wedding Anniversary

March 2 - Norm Tyre, Birthday

March 5- Janice Murasko, Joined Club

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"There is no abstract art. You must always start with something. Afterward you can remove all traces of reality." - Pablo Picasso

See you Saturday and Tuesday, Jerry
