PROGRAM

Mike Lepore swears that this time Mr. Mystery will bring us no program. Don't worry, Pres. Mike will keep things going.

LAST WEEK

The program was carefully hidden from Your Ed. and Pres. Mike promised to give a report on it. So that we don't mess up Mike's wonderful work, it is in quotes below.

"Community Developer Director Bob Dawson withstood the onslaught of pointed questions from certain real estate agent types, business owners and residents like the pro that he is. Bob certainly came with an arm load of material on land use and zoning. Development studies have been commissioned and there is an air of excitement in the City. Black Elmer exercised his First Amendment Rights to redress certain grievances and Mike Lepore offered to sell the city for a discounted commission."

Longden teacher, Dan Ferguson brought 3 outstanding students.

REPORT ON THE MID-WINTER

"Temple City was well represented at the Mid Winter Conference held in Burbank last weekend, unfortunately not by our own club members. Key Club Lt. Gov. Anthony Ma and 10 members of Oak Ave.'s Builder's Club (which has not been chartered yet) were there all day working. The District does a good job educating clubs and gave everyone who attended a CD with all the forms and materials on it."

PANCAKE BREAKFAST, FEB. 28 CAMELLIA FESTIVAL

"Bob Tyler handed out pancake breakfast assignments like a drill sergeant although I doubt Napoleon was ever a sergeant. Come one come all to the Amida Society building by 5:00 a.m. and watch us set off the alarm again. WE NEED EVERYONE TO WORK. Bring the money collected, your donation and any unsold tickets. Chuck Shaw volunteered to help Dan Snell and Bob Hewitt with the buses. Pray for good weather."

MIKE'S FINISHER

"Finally, Norm Tyre was ordered to appear next Tuesday and show cause in re the immunity badge and his birthday and perhaps Steve's wedding anniversary. Bring your CPA, Norm, you are going to need it."

ANNIVERSARY AND BIRTHDAY; TYRE DAY

March 1 - Monica and Steve Tyre; Norm Tyre

NASTY JAB OF THE WEEK

From the log cabin Republican spokesman: "We don't need graffiti on the walls of the Constitution."
