MARCH 6, 2007 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 70 NO. 10

THIS TUESDAY

Susie Ling will present

"The History of Chinese in the San Gabriel Valley"

LAST TUESDAY (courtesy of Mike Miller)

Dr. Eve Cappello, an organizational psychologist, author and former nightclub entertainer, was presented by Steve Montesanti and gave a talk on her relationship with her father. In today's times where it is popular and common to blame the parent(s) for all of your problems, it was refreshing to hear someone pay homage to a parent for their discipline, rules and high standards in life. Dr. Cappello fondly recalled how her father was her hero while growing up in a home with rules and firm, but flexible, parental control.

Mr. Happy #1 and #2 report that 346 breakfasts were served at our 11th Annual event. If you have money or receipts to turn in, do it now. 14 Key Clubbers helped bring down the average age of our workers.

Tony Straub was in Texas, why I don't know. Builders Club advisor Mrs. Winnie Joe is expecting her first child. Mike Miller traded in his flaming (for real) Honda for a flaming red PT Cruiser. You can't miss this thing coming down the street! It already has flames painted on it. The PT does not stand for "Practicing Treasurer".

Farm City Exchange takes place March 20,21. Young folks will be coming down from the Central Valley to take in the sights. Housing is needed for the 20th.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Brandon Olson enjoys baseball, reading, basketball, and hanging out with his friends and parents. Goals are to be a pro baseball player, go to college, and be a good person.

Thomas Rivers likes basketball, music, and reading. Best things about school are his friends, teachers, and playground. Goals are to get good grades, be a good person, and do the right thing.

CLC teachers Ms. Lois Billings and Mr. Raul Acevedo, and Dr. Doug Sears presented two outstanding students.

John Lau Chin has 4 brothers and sisters and enjoys hanging out with his friends. The best things about school are his teachers, friends, and the school. Personal goals are to graduate from High School, become a business professional, and to drive.

Kristie Sanchez also has 4 brothers and sisters and enjoys her friends, and the teachers and staff. The best that ever happened was passing her High School exit exam. Personal goals are to finish school, get a job, and drivers license.
