LAST WEEK

David Tran, who left Saigon thirty years ago completed his talk of a month ago. Some of those Vietnamese who had helped the U.S. and the south regime supported by the U.S. didn't get out by air but left by ships one of which went to Guam. The refugees were divided into those going to California, Arkansas, and Pennsylvania. David acted as interpreter, having had English as part of his classes for two years.

THE PANCAKER

18 of our 22 active members made it a success. In alphabetical order our great Kiwanians were Elmer Black, John Chandler, Jim Enkelaar, Tony Euredjian, Pres. John Gera, Bob Hewitt, Bill Hohl, Jerry Jambazian, Mike Lepore, Dawn Manwaring, Mike Miller, Steve Montesanti, Janice Murasko, Jim Robuck, Yr. Ed, and Chuck Shaw, Dan Snell, and Tony Straub. Janice supervised the Key Club volunteers, Pres. Angela Yen being outstanding.

NEWS OF NORM

It was announced that Norm would be in rehab for about two weeks. See last week's bulletin for the location of St. Joseph's. Visitors welcome. Might be a good idea to call ahead so you don't have to wait while medical procedures run their courses. Norm's phone number is 818-843-5111, Extension 14022. He is getting some movement in his afflicted arm and leg.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Well, when I came into the meeting room, I thought I saw two students. Then I realized one was the student-looking teacher, Mr. Ron Lee. We had two students from Cloverly, but one of them was ill.

Nicole Hau is fortunate enough to have Mr. Lee as her teacher. Nicole has a younger sister and enjoys swimming, reading, and traveling. Best things about school are the wonderful teachers, the library, and her friends. Nicole's goals are to go to the swim sectionals this summer and beat her best time by 10 seconds.

FARM CITY

Will be here April 12-13. Beds for kids are needed. Let Mike Miller know if you can help.

AND IN CONCLUSION (Courtesy of the American Legion)

The modern age. In a cartoon the father is talking to his 12 year old son and saying "I don't know... go ask your computer."

An older codger pays the movie attendant $2.50 for popcorn and said, "The last time I came to the movies, popcorn was only 15 cents." "Well sir," says the answer, "You're really enjoy yourself. We have sound now."

Don't squat with your spurs on.

SEE YOU TUESDAY,
