LAST WEEK

Joe Morales spoke about model trains, a subject which turned adults into boys of yesteryear.

The Pancake Breakfast attracted a large bunch of eaters.

We once again had a welcome guest, the great Pancake flipper, Art Luna. Jerry Jambazian reported that former member Jim Kleman (Lou's Lock Shop), has passed away. He was, until his prolonged disability, a live wire Kiwanian. Our condolences to his family and wife Pat.

STUDENTS-OF-THE-MONTH

Teacher Krista Carlson brought 4 great students from the award winning Emperor School.

Noe Leon enjoys football, soccer, basketball, the playground equipment, nice teachers, and every body there is a role model. He wants to get good grades and be successful in life.

Julianna Sanchez has eight brothers and sisters, and her hobbies are hanging out with her friends, playing with her cats, and spending time with her family. The best thing that ever happened was being in Mr. Giangregorio's class. Personal goals are to make new friends, get good grades, and make it through the sixth grade alive.

Carmen Lopez has four brothers and sisters and likes skateboarding, music, acting, and modeling (none of which she was willing to demonstrate). Carmen wants to go to NYU, get her driver's permit, and to go to the 7th grade.

Rhianna Seery enjoys dancing, acting, singing, and beading. Rhianna thinks the school is clean, the staff and teachers are nice, and she receives a good education. Personal goals are to build another Disneyland, get good grades, keep her room clean, and be nice to her brother.

TOOTHPRINTS (Again)

Hopefully, we have the correct form this time. Not Longden, but Cloverly. Friday, March 18, 2005 8:30 a.m.

ANNIVERSARY

March 19, Marlene and Tony Euredjian.

NORM NEWS

I heard from Steve that there has been no change. Your Ed. says, please call ahead at 818-843-5111, extension 14022 before making the trip to see Norm.
