PROGRAM

We get a double billing of the husband-wife team on the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department. It did not show last week but it will be our program for Tuesday. We also may get a future program by Mr. G. of Emperor.

LAST WEEK

We had to fall back on shooting the breeze, which taxes Pres. Mike. He had to dodge various cannonballs, such as Bob Tyler saying that the missing U.C.L.A. body parts were re-assembled and sold to U.S.C. to be used as part of the law school student body. Methinks that some whole cadavers were saved for this year's Bruin basketball team.

Emperor School was well represented with 3 outstanding students and 3 outstanding educators, namely Principal Kathy Perini, Assistant Principal Trang Lai, and teacher Mr. Greg Giangregorio.

Max Ruckle likes sports, school, internet and TV. If he could change one thing it would be not being rude to his mom. He wants to make good grades and go to U.S.C.

Mari Yoshida likes to play basketball, happy face stuff, and sharks! She also enjoys getting straight A's, having wonderful friends, and not getting in trouble.

Katie Brown enjoys sports, drawing, reading, making friends, singing, acting, and writing. She likes talking with friends at recess and the teachers.

INTERCLUB(?)

Bob Tyler wasn't quite sure that on Wednesday March 17 we may go to San Marino for an Interclub. He may call his valiant crew. Of course it may be the blind leading the blind in good old Div. 10. The Altadena/Crown City Kiwanian heralds their Apr. 19 Prayer Breakfast but puts a question mark after that.

ANNIVERSARIES AND A BIRTHDAY

Mar 16	Phyllis and Ray Gudie
Mar 19	Marlene and Tony Euredjian
Mar 22	Dan Snell

KATHY PAYS US A VISIT

A Club favorite, Honorary Member Kathy Perini, paid us a visit.

LAKER BODY PART

On December 21 (my birthday!) Karl Malone heard that Big Bang. The Laker organization said he would be playing again in a few weeks. Yr. Ed's surgeon son snorted. "Months is more like it," said he. Sure 'nuff, it's going to be about several months.

WAS MARK TWAIN THINKING OF POLITICS?

"Get your facts and then you can distort them as much as you please."

See you Tuesday,
