MARCH 18, 2003 TUESDAY NOON VOL. 66 NO. 25

PROGRAM

It will be the day after St. Patrick's Day. So, Jim Enkelaar will continue with the video of
"The Irish Tenors"

LAST WEEK (A double header)

First, we had a truly long distance interclub visit of a group from Div. 28, led by the only living charter member of our Club, Lionel Halbe (see below) He had a good group and is a past Lt. Gov of Div. 28.

Our scheduled program was presented by Stephen Veres, member and past president of the Burbank Noon Kiwanis Club. Stephen has just finished a book, "A Light in the Distance." The light was that of an Austrian border guard who let Stephen's family escape from the Soviet tyranny over his native Hungary. They then emigrated to the U.S. A. where he went to night school and became a mechanical engineer and a building contractor, the latter leading to the loss of his business when the government tried to win a dispute over a big contract. Stephen used up all his money on the defense and shouldered the representation of his subcontractors. He has landed on his feet as he and his son run the world's largest sportscard business.

THE GREAT INTERCLUB WITH APPLE VALLEY

Lionel Halbe, the only living charter member of our own Club, reminisced about the earliest days of our Club, of which he has fond memories. He's been a Kiwanian for 63 years, with 60 years of perfect attendance. Lionel was Asst. Treasurer of the Temple City National Bank at the NE corner of Las Tunas and Temple City Blvd. (now Fisher's Drug Store and Bobo's). Lionel is a past Lt. Gov. of Div. 28.

INTERCLUB WITH SAN GABRIEL

We were also visited by San Gabriel. Dr. Royce Foster announced that Farm-City now has filled its bed quota. He pitched for the San Gabriel Easter Pancaker, April 19, 7:00 A.M. at Smith Park.

AN ANNIVERSARY AND A BIRTHDAY

Mar. 19 Marlene and Tony Euredjian March 22 Dan Snell
Thanks, Harlos for your big donation to the Gil Sefton Fund.

STUDENTS-OF-THE-MONTH

Emperor School visited us with three students, along with teacher Mr. Giangregorio (AKA Mr. 'G'). Gyorcie (Stevie) Castellanos likes her friends, the cool science experiments, and learning new things. Rebecca Nunez wants to get all good grades in every subject, to be an artist, and be able to understand the way's of animals (her favorite being cats). Jason Wu would like to stop the war with Iraq from happening. He would like to get straight A's, to get better at music, and to limit his watching of TV.

PUTTING YOUR MONEY WHERE YOUR MOUTH IS

Paul Krugman, Princeton economist, who has repeatedly exposed the fuzzy math of our president, in his latest column headed "A Fiscal Train Wreck" predicts soaring interest rates he has switched the variable interest rate, on his home mortgage, to a fixed rate. The business community, he says, is starting to get scared.

CAMPING

Says Dave Barry: "is nature's way promoting the motel business."
