MARCH 20, 2007 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 70 NO. 12

THIS TUESDAY

Wonderwoman Linda Payne, CEO of our local Chamber of Commerce will give us an update on the latest happenings around town.

LAST TUESDAY

Super volunteer Nick Gladis is shepherding a great bunch of volunteers who are making sure we don't forget the past.

Our member Dan Snell is the historian. Property taxes are a whopping $16,000 per year. They hope to have that amount permanently reduced to some manageable.

The Historical Society officially took over the Women's Clubhouse in June of 2006. The hall is available for rent for parties and other events, no alcohol!

Nick presented certificates of appreciation to Kiwanis members John Chandler, Mike Miller, Steve Montesanti, Chuck Shaw, and Dan Snell.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Emperor teacher Ms. Mary Ann Parille proudly presented three great honorees.

Angela Zhou enjoys coin collecting, violin, and tetherball. Angela said, "the best things about school are the teachers who are persistent in helping us learn, the students show moral values, and the great environment." Goals are to become a better person, volunteer more in the community, and make more friends.

Sylvia Luong enjoys swimming, drawing, tetherball, doodling, making scrambled eggs and 3 cheese pizza. Goals are to learn to snap her fingers loudly, learn to whistle, and make a bridge out of toothpicks.

Lizette Arellano enjoys singing, dancing, reading, animals, and doing speeches. Best things about school are history, science, and math homework. Personal goals are to be a great singer, and teach her dogs tricks.

OTHER NEWS

San Gabriel Kiwanis Club will be hosting their 63rd Annual Easter Egg Hunt and Pancake Breakfast on Saturday, April 7th at Smith Park.

A huge postcard was received from the students that went on the Washington DC trip. It was nice to see the comments of this life-changing trip.

Mike Miller divided the huge lottery jackpot of $16.21. Mike Lepore was the big winner with $6 and some change. 1099's will be forthcoming.

A nice thank you note was received and read to the Club from CLC Students of the Month.

Mr. Happy #1 would like your 2nd half dues money now.

I will report of Jim Enkelaar's Distinguished Service Award next week.

A SAD NOTE

Member Walter Shatford and Sarah are deeply sorry to announce the passing of their son, Walter III. Walter battled valiantly the disease that finally took his life. A Memorial service for Walter is planned for this Friday at All Saints Episcopal Church at 132 N Euclid Ave in Pasadena (near City Hall) at 4:00 p.m.. Reception will be at 9132 Arcadia Ave in San Gabriel immediately following the service.

Our deepest sympathy to the Shatford family at this time of loss.
