PROGRAM

Well Sir, Mike Lepore says it will be Sean Haley presenting
"What it Takes to Start a Magazine Business."

There is a good chance that the speaker will show up. Why? Yr. Ed. says that the programs are all too often just blowing in the wind. Now, just to spite Yr. Ed. the program will actually show.

WHILE WE ARE ABOUT IT

The no show members are also blowing in the wind. They will show up when it might be amusing to join the real members who always show up.

LAST WEEK

John Gera, with some alleged help from Jerry Jambazian and the peanut gallery, had to make with the jokes. By this time you have divined that Yr. Ed. is not having a nice day. He's reminded of the Navy axiom: Shape up or ship out.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Thank Heaven, here's Jerry Jambazian with his usual community service. Dedicated teachers, Mr. Ron Bridges and Mrs. Carolyn Roozee brought 2 great students from the Community Learning Center.

Sean Sears said it was tough having the same last name as the Principal. His hobbies are drawing and his personal goals are to get his driver's license, get a job, and to graduate from high school.

Nicolette O'Connor has three brothers and sisters. Nicolette enjoys soccer, ballet, reading, history, and P.E. Personal goals are to get good in math, go to college early, and to be a pediatrician or nurse.

KIWANIS KALENDAR

Pres. John reminds us:

March 21 Monday Temple City Chamber of Commerce 5:30 to 7:00 P.M..

Monthly Social Mixer at Coldwell Banker, 9228 Las Tunas.

March 25 7:30 A.M. Good Friday Prayer Breakfast at the Scripps Home, Altadena.

April 12, 13 Farm City comes here. Beds needed for the kids.

JERRY'S AND IN CLOSING

Hot off the proverbial Kiwanis slow press is the complete unabridged Division 10 Directory after 5 months. With all the white space we have good news and bad news. The good news: Not too much ink was used. The bad news: Many trees sacrificed their all. Make sure to get your copy!

WALT'S AND IN CLOSING

A tour guide recently reported on Palermo, a city in Italy of one million. She says that red lights are for decoration only. All cars drive right through them without even slowing down. If you are a pedestrian you must keep in motion. If you slow down or stop, cars will never stop for you.
