THIS TUESDAY

Steve Tyre will make a second attempt to explain why the IRS is taking more of our money.

LAST TUESDAY

Our first VIP breakfast was a rousing success. We had over 50 people in attendance including such dignitaries as Cal-Nev-Ha Governor-Elect Tom Millham and his wife Cheryl, Division 10 Lt. Governor Jan Robertson and Ron, San Gabriel member and cousin of Jackie Millham, Dr. Royce Foster, and Honorary Kiwanis member Jackie Millham.

Also Temple City High School Key Club members President Stella Yuan, VP Regina Luk, President-Elect Bella Chu, and Lt. Governor Elect Jane Huang.

Local dignitaries included Mayor Fernando Vizcarra, City Manager Jose Pulido, Council Members Cynthia Sternquist and Mayor Pro-Tem Tom Chavez, Planning Commissioner Patrick Horton, TCUSD Superintendent Dr. Chelsea Kan-Smith, Honorary Member and Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent Lynne Burkkardt, and Senior Citizen President Van Vanhouten.

Also in attendance Temple Station Captain Joseph Fennell, Lt. Corrone Jacob, Reverend David Palmer from First United Methodist Church, Adolph Faber, David Seltman, Bruce Wataru, Herbert Chan, Linda Payne, and Henry Walpus.

President Steve was a gracious host and did an excellent job of welcoming everyone and making them feel comfortable. Jim Robuck led the patriotic song, Dan Arrighi did his stirring rendition of the renewal of the Pledge of Allegiance as no one else could, Dan Snell with the invocation. John Gera did an excellent job of explaining Kiwanis to our guests.

Governor-Elect Tom Millham spoke of his 33 years in Kiwanis at the invitation and tutelage of his father "Big Al Millham". Tom was wearing the shirt his father wore which had "AI" embroidered on it. Tom spoke of the acronym KIWANIS: K=Kiwaniis, I=Individual, W=Women, A=All Ages, N=No Task to Great, I=Indian, S=Service.

The highlight of the morning was when Tom was explaining the attributes of being awarded the DSA (Distinguished Service Award). Speaking to the audience, all the time holding the plaque, then at the end walking over to his surprised tearful mother and presenting her with this prestigious award. Behind every great man is a devoted wife. Jackie was the inspiration to Al and ultimately her son Tom. Congratulations Jackie!!!

A big thank you to Dan Snell and his committee for all the planning and hard work of this important project of encouraging community leaders to join forces with us.
