THIS TUESDAY

It is my birthday so I assume that a special program was arranged. Past speaker, Dr. Eve Capello will present "Women in Entertainment".

LAST TUESDAY

We met at the newly refurbished Historical Society and Museum.

Nick Gladis was our host as we took a tour of the many artifacts in the front lobby. Nick gave the history of the historic building dating back to 1941. Nick and Nancy Gladis have undertaken the leadership responsibilities of making sure that our heritage is preserved, protected, and displayed.

Nick was presented with a $500.00 donation to the Museum from our club as part of the proceeds from the Pancake Breakfast.

Steve Montesanti presented us with some history telling of his house being built in 1915. Steve also had our lunch catered by Casa Del Rey. I showed up at 12:15 and it was "Casa All Gone".

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

CLC Principal Dr. Doug Sears and teacher, Mr. Andrew Jahan brought 2 great students.

Elliot Sanchez is 13 years old, has 4 brothers and sisters and enjoys riding his bike, going places and hanging out with his friends. The best things about CLC are the educational movies, P.E., the staff and students. Personal goals are to build a theme park in Temple City, finish school, go to college, and get his real estate license.

Chris Barragan is 15 years old, has 3 brothers and sisters and enjoys cars and food. The best things about school are the teachers, students, and P.E.. Goals are to graduate high school, go to college, get a good job with an outstanding salary, and buy his own house.

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of former member Joe Startin. Joe was President in 1971 and Lt. Governor in 1981. Joe and Mary spent many years in the TV and Appliance business on Lower Azusa Rd. Joe loved life and always had a smile and great attitude. Joe and Mary retired to Mesa, Arizona, then to Escodido and then to Yorba Linda. There will be a memorial service on Saturday, March 29th at 1:30 p.m.. Senior Living Community (Eastern Star Home), 16850 Bastanchury Rd, Yorba Linda, 92886. Mary would love to hear from some of the old timers at 714 792-0941.
