APRIL 1, 2003 TUESDAY NOON VOL. 66 NO. 27

PROGRAM (This is not an April 1 foolery)

Well Sir, it's two in a row, as Jim Enkelaar comes up with another from the Speakers Bureau of the Women Lawyers Assn. of Los Angeles. This time it's Rae Lamothe who will bring us:

"Landlord/Tenant Issues"

LAST WEEK

Anne Stillman said that the tables were now turned and violators of the rights of the elderly can be made to pay. Care no longer just exists for the benefit of staff and greedy owners. Patients must be served and not be raped and/or suffer bed sores (the latter being caused by poor circulation due to lack of turning the patient.

Frequent visiting keeps the facility on its toes. Beware of the facility that is one of fourteen units in a profit-making chain. Non-profits are better.

OTHER LAST WEEK NEWS

Norm's cousin, Donald, made one of his visits from his home in Thailand. A good interclub group visited us from South Pasadena. Kim Smith, a Cub Scout leader, made a pitch for $100 donations.

Mike Miller said, "everyone who has not paid that now is the time to pay." Jerry Jambazian also celebrated his birthday.

INTERCLUB NEWS

Mike Lepore needs you on Wednesday, Apr. 2 at the Monday Cafe.

As noted above, South Pasadena visited us with many big wheels in attendance, including Bart Carroll, who looked to be in good health.

STUDENTS-OF-THE-MONTH

Assistant Principal Mrs. Karen Reed accompanied three outstanding students from Longden School. Brendon Kha is 11 years old. He likes playing basketball. The best thing that ever happened was NOT getting a Progress Report (not getting one is a goog thing). Michelle Chang likes stamps, collecting coins, rocks, reading, and making up plays and stories. Crystal Wong likes the cool assemblies, the great Principal and Asst. Principal, and the great teachers. If she could change one thing, it would be to end the war in Iraq.

MAKING YOUR DAY

Nothing like an irritant from Yr. Ed. He's reminded of W. C. Fields' remark "Start the day with a smile and get it over with." We are also reminded of the old axiom, war is too important to be left to the generals. Well, Sir, not this war. The generals told Rumsfeld that we needed massive numbers of troops, the Sec. of Defense said, in effect, nonsense, we need a smaller lightning force, and leaflets. A grateful people will throw in the towel. The Pentagon spent money on lightning vehicles, rather than personnel.

GALLOWS HUMOR (from the New Republic)

CIA, FBI, say they're closing in on Osama bin Laden: "It only took us nine months to find Elizabeth Smart, and she was more than a block away."

Archeologists say Iraq attack will halt all digs in the region. Administration response: "War is just archeology by other means."
