LAST TUESDAY

Dr. Eve Cappello was introduced by another Italian, Steve Montesanti.

Probably before she was "Dr. Eve", she was a saloon singer and played at the piano bar.

Dr. Eve is a multi-award winning speaker and author of 8 books. She has written hundreds of newspaper columns and magazine articles and has appeared on over 300 television and radio talk shows The Today Show and Good Morning Melbourne in Australia. She has been nominated as International Woman of the Year and is listed among the 2000 Most Notable Women in America,

Her Peak Performance Training is a unique combination of psychology and business, incorporating behavioral and organizational guidelines designed to improve performance and achieve results.

Former member of Kiwanis and retired business owner Herb Mahaffey joined us as a guest.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Longden Elementary School and their teacher Mr. Bruce Bremer brought 3 great students to be honored.

Brandon Duong is 10 years old, has 3 sisters and enjoys xbox games and transformers. The best things about Longden are the small class size, P.E. class, and art. Goals are to build a leggo starfighter, get better at reading and spelling, and to earn 30 accelerated reader points.

Eberardo Cabrera is 9 years old, has 3 brothers and sisters and enjoys watching videos on the computer. The best things about school are math, P.E., and recess. Goals are to build a time machine, improve his reading and spelling, and memorize the times tables.

Ricky Sanchez is 9 years old, has a brother and sister and enjoys sports, especially baseball. Best things about school is learning, art, and learning to listen. Goals are to hit a home run, be able to catch a fast ground ball, and to throw strikes.
