"THE CAMELLIA CLUB"
TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA
Chartered August 8, 1939

APRIL 3, 2007 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 70 NO. 14

THIS TUESDAY

Our Builders Club at Oak Avenue will give an update on their banner year.

LAST TUESDAY

Dan Snell gave us story of how is to live on a farm during the Great Depression. His sister, Mary Palmer wrote a book of poetry entitled "Kid Sisters Never Forget". It seems that Mary's siblings liked putting grasshoppers in her bed. Could it have been her baby brother Dan?

If I am not mistaken, Dan shared this book as a reader in one of our schools.

Interclub guru Jim "Mr. Wuuuunnnnerful" Enkelaar reminded us all to attend another interclub in Altadena on Good Friday. Jim is going for the Red Robin or Round Robin, or something like that. We we get the banner patch, we'll finally know what it is called.

Peggy Miller was a guest of the club.

FARM CITY REPORT (courtesy of Mike Miller)

Thirty three students with chaperones from the Central Valley of California within Division 18 came to visit last Tuesday & Wednesday. Field trips to LAPD Equestrian facility near Griffith Park, LA County Fire Dept.'s Camp 2 in La Canada and a visit to Vivetique Mattress Factory in Arcadia (but started in Temple City) were conducted on the first day. Following stays with host families, a tour of NBC Studios, including the set of the Tonight Show with Jay Leno, followed by the Getty Museum near the junior college known as UCLA completed the second day.

Our thanks to hopefully Key Club Governor Dorothy Yen and her family for hosting two girls. Dorothy was the only one from Temple City to answer the call. A good program that went very smoothly thanks to the committee. We go to Div. 18 in late October with the date TBA.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Longden was scheduled but did not show up. They will hopefully double-up in April.
