WALT'S LAST WEEK

Was a total disaster.

Again, Mr. Internet was a no show. So long, buddy. Enough is enough.
Get lost. Our meeting ended at 1:04. A Day of Infamy.

JERRY'S LAST WEEK

Was a total disaster. Not seeing any students, suddenly it dawned on me that this was the 5th Tuesday and no students.

Again, Mr. Internet was a no show. Nobody wanted to know what I knew about the Internet. Not to be outdone...when I returned to the store after club meeting I immediately did a Google search for this no show.

Google knows this guy. They said we could invite him to speak again when...

BIRTHDAY

April 11 - Tony Straub

OUR BRAVE TROOPS GET THE SHAFT

Yr. Ed. was astounded when he read that the greedy creditors were refusing to honor the Soldiers and Sailors Relief Act which provides for a moratorium against foreclosures when you are off fighting for your Country.

"THE RICH,"

Said Herbert Hoover, "are just too greedy." Capitalism, he said is O.K.
The blame lies with the greedy capitalists.

POLITICS

Yr. Ed., long a student of politics, has lived to see half truths as the routine currency. Let's hear it for the good old ways. What used to be "The Great Game of Politics," is no mas.

NOW TO LIGHTER STUFF

A nun thought she had enough gas to get to her favorite gas station.
Alas, she was about a block short of getting there when the tank was really empty. She hoofed it to the station to get a can of gas but her friend on duty said the gas cans were all out. She said she was en route to bring a bedpan to a friend. She said she would go get it and he could put some gas in it. He finally relented and she took the bedpan and a funnel back to her car.
One man observed the nun's car and said to his buddy, "Man, if she starts with that, I'm going to become a Catholic."

Then there was a guy next to him on an airplane, and he said "I'm going to California. I hear they are kind of crazy there." His seatmate, Jack, said "Not to worry, it's ok." Relieved, he responded, "What do you do there?"
"Me," said Jack, "I'm a tail gunner on a Budweiser truck in Oakland."
