PROGRAM

Elmer Black has provided Yr. Ed. with the following:

Our speaker and performer will be John Schavaro. Raised in Alhambra. For 30 years he has been a member of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra. He'll talk about the Walt Disney Concert Hall. He will perform on the bass viol.

LAST WEEK

It was nobody's fault but our speaker on the hot topic of the 710 had to attend an official meeting on that very subject. If she had just failed to appear (actually she called) Yr. Ed. would have been in danger of blowing out his brains; he is fed up with giving you, dear reader, a chain of no speakers.

REPORT FROM PRES. MIKE

The District Key Club Convention was held last weekend in Sacramento with over 6,000 high school students participating. Attorney General Bill Lockyer, a former Key Clubber, greeted one and all on behalf of Gov. Arnold. Eleven students from Temple City attended and fully participated in everything. As required by school board policy, Bev Jones from the School District also attended. Our Key Club won 2nd place in the District Web design contest and was recognized several other times. Our Lt. Gov. Anthony Ma was recognized as being in the top ten of Lt. Govs and nearly won the election for District Treasurer. Besides Mrs. Jones, our clubs owe a big thank you to Janice Murasko and Bob Hewitt for transportation to and from the airport.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Cloverly Principal, Doug Walters brought two great 6th graders.

Sharon Lai likes to play basketball, the computer and chatting. Sharon wants to get better grades, try her best on everything, and to go to college. Either UCLA or Harvard.

Harriman Chiang enjoys playing video games, watching TV, playing cards, golf, and basketball. I think Harriman likes letters; he wants to go to the NBA, PGA, or UCLA.

Emperor teacher extraordinaire, Krista Carlson brought 2 great students.

Jimmy Du likes basketball, reading comics on the internet, and solving math problems. Resident genius Norm Tyre gave Jimmy some pretty tough math problems. Jimmy had all the correct answers.

Kenny Tong enjoys drawing, the teachers, subjects, and students. Kenny wants good grades for the 3rd trimester and wants to go on to Oak.

SICK CALL

Bob Tyler says he's Ok, having recovered from - let's call it a false alarm.

Ray Gudie was said to have lost 20 lbs. while the medicos keep up the search (16 or so tests) for what's' going on. It's bad enough for Ray not knowing but he's in pain while they hunt.

KIWANIS KALENDAR

April 9 - 7:30 A.M. Prayer Breakfast (Scripps Home) 2212 N. El Molino, Pasadena

April 10 - San Gabriel's Giant Pancaker

HUMORISTS AT WORK

"Waiting for Godot is in 2 acts.

It's the play in which nothing happens twice." Anon.

"He and I had an office so tiny that an inch smaller and it would have been adultery."
Dorothy Parker

See you Tuesday,
