LAST TUESDAY

Duarte residents Alan and Claudia Heller made a life-changing decision in 2010, the year of their 66th birthdays: retiring from their professional jobs, they bought a small trailer and set out to rediscover the celebrated nostalgia along Route 66. Traveling from the Santa Monica Pier to Chicago, the Hellers wrote articles for a local paper and took photos along the way, documenting their experiences.

Alan, who serves as president of Duarte's Public Access Channel (DCTV), and Claudia, president of the Duarte Historical Society, moved to Duarte in 1980. Their book, published by HistoryPress, has recently been released and is entitled "Life on Route 66, personal accounts along the Mother Road to California."

"I was writing articles on Route 66 and immediately readers began contacting me with their memories and experiences on the Road. Some even provided us with journals and photos they had inherited from family members.

A professional photographer, Alan constantly took photos on their trip, and many times they have returned to historical spots along California's section of the Road to add to the collection. The couple documented their adventure including a few "off road" detours such as the UFO Convention in Roswell, New Mexico and touring the Missouri home of Laura Ingalls Wilder where she authored the Little House on the Prairie series.

"We especially enjoyed the creative roadside attractions which sprung up in the heyday of Route 66. They are an example of American ingenuity. "These pieces of outrageous art along with refurbished gas stations, persevering diners and neon-clad motels make for joyous stops along the road," according to Claudia.

We had an InterClub with Monterey Park visiting us. Attending were Isabel Wu, Steve Ramirez, and a new member Simon Chen.

The annual Postal Letter Carriers' Food Drive will take place again on Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m.. We will be on hand to receive food items from the letter carriers as they come in. We will sort food along with our Key Club. We will then transport the thousands of pounds of food to benefit People For People.

We will be helping barbecue for Maryvale Orphanage from 10:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.. this Sunday, April 13. Meet by the driveway near the Early Education Bldg. We will barbecue for 175 guests with 4 members at the grill. Due to limited space it would be good to carpool. Bob Rodenbucher is offering rides, meet at his house at 10:15 @ 5936 Reno Avenue.
