PROGRAM

Joan Hillard, Temple City Schools Superintendent, will talk about
"District-wide Construction"

Your opportunity to know all about that building program on Las Tunas at the former medical facility, originally built by doctors, including John Chandler's father, as I recall.

LAST WEEK

Pres. Bob turned the meeting over to Ray Gudie who presented a concrete plan for actually doing something about membership. He looked out and saw the handful of members in front of him. Also Bob and Ray emphasized that we have about two weeks in which to come up with a solution as to our top two leaders. Just sleeping won't do it. If it would Norm was present and ready. And speaking of Norm he's doing his best to hype the attendance, again bringing his cousin, Donald Gittelsohn, all the way from Thailand.

Yr. Ed. is a member of an organization that has a history of co-presidents which works beautifully. The co-presidents work happily, work out who will lead as they go along and it works. Unfortunately the Kiwanis rules apparently don't allow this. Ok, says Yr. Ed., if we have to two highly qualified retirees who can't do it for a year, divide it into one to be pres. for one-half year and another for the second half. In the meantime if the then acting pres. needs to take a trip or is sick #2 steps in. They trade off from time to time. Should Jim want to give up on his efforts that chore could be divided, by lot, for one or two month segments of our membership. It turns out that Rotary would stop rotating and join us was incorrect.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Joe Turner, 6th grade teacher at California Distinguished Emperor School brought three outstanding students. Eric Peng says "the best that ever happened to me was receiving the Kiwanian award". His personal goals are getting good grades, doing well in science, and improving his math scores. Victoria Hsu is in Mr. G's class, she said "the best things about school are physical ed., recess, and the fun experiments in class. Kelly Sadamitsu likes soccer, listening to pop punk rock, playing the flute, and hanging out with her friends.

SICK CALL

Lou Merritt is about ready to return. He hopes that the last of the bombarded kidney stones will have passed.

KIWANIS KALENDAR

REMARKS ON ETIQUETTE

God Bless America is not the National Anthem. You don't need to put your hand over your heart or face the flag (but nobody is going to stop whatever you do.) Toadies at the White House have arranged in modern times a custom of a member of the armed forces, in dress uniform snapping off a salute as the Pres. gets clear off the plane. The Pres responds in kind. This emphasizes that the President is Commander-in-Chief. The founding father Presidents were able to function without a soldier standing in the mud to deliver a salute when the carriage arrived. Ah well, some among us still want a king.
