TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA

(Chartered August 8, 1939)

APRIL 27, 2004 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 67 NO. 30

PROGRAM

Temple City resident Angelina Levy, director of the School of Fashion and Design in Alhambra will give us the scoop on the training she gives her clients to better help them in a world that maybe does not value their worth.

LAST WEEK

Mary Cammarano, San Gabriel Council Member, assisted by Barbara Messina, former Mayor and Council Member, vigorously opposed South Pasadena's 40 or more years of opposition to extending Highway 710 through South Pasadena. The "History and Benefits" handout says it would save 7 lives and 610 accidents, save users $5.3 billion, etc. "Milestones" was passed out (about 9 pages) portraying South Pasadena's long history of delay.

Yr. Ed. was asked also to give the other side. Yr. Ed. is with San Gabriel but Sara is on the South Pasadena side. Her argument is that 710 is a division of a particularly pleasant city of residences and ruin the quality of that city. Yr. Ed. observes that you couldn't get elected dogcatcher in South Pasadena unless you say you will oppose 710. The old plan, at a fraction of today's cost, was for 710 to go through a trench, paved over and the surface given to the City. The City would have stores of first class quality and millions could forget that awful crawl on Fremont.

STUDENTS-OF-THE-MONTH (Here's Jerry J. again)

Two of Community Learning Centers finest visited us with their smiling teacher, Mr. Ron Bridges along with School Secretary Susie Ten-Napel.

Riley Ponder is 13 years old and enjoys playing soccer and softball. She would like to build a Theme Park (could it possibly be named RileyLand?) Riley wants to go to High School, college, become successful and wealthy.

Kevin Lee is 15 years old and likes playing games, web-design, basketball and football. Kevin thinks the teachers are great. Personal goals he is striving for are to improve his grades, get into a good college, and to become a doctor.
