LATE BREAKING NEWS FOR THIS TUESDAY

We are back to swimming with the fishes at the Bahooka.

LAST TUESDAY

You be the judge. Was it a strike, a gutter ball, a 7-10 split? We don't know because a certain nameless person did not alert the bowling alley that we were coming last week.

Thanks to Richard Wenzel and others members who at the last minute saved the day by setting up tables and getting pizza for our members and guests. Papa John's provided the pizza. Papa Steve M provided the apologies.

We started the meeting by inducting into membership our newest member, Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Chelsea Kang-Smith. Chelsea has been Supt. since August. She lives in Orange with her husband Brad and their 2 dogs. Her hobbies are gardening and walking on the beach. She has received her Bachelors from UCI, Masters from Cal State Fullerton, and her Doctorate from Mike Millers and Doug Sears favorite University USC.

Chelsea arrives in Temple City just when the District is facing its most serious financial challenges. We welcome Chelsea to Temple City Kiwanis and look forward to a long relationship of partnering with the District. Board Member Matt Smith will be inducted into membership soon.

Retired TCHS teacher Carmen Rey has been an educator for 42 years. She started the peer listening group at the high school 24 years ago after reading a book entitled "Listening With Love" by Joan Sturkie. Approximately 152 students apply each year. 80 are accepted into this special group for 1 year of training every Wednesday on their own time. Students with various concerns can engage a peer listener to "Listen With Love". These trained students wear their red t-shirts each Wednesday.

Carmen is so passionate about this needed program that she gives her home and cell phone number to her trainees. We hope this valuable program would not be in jeopardy with the budget cuts that could take place. We hope to have Carmen return at a later date to give us more information and my favorite, "role playing", possibly with the two students she brought with her, Lillian Wang and Jacky Chan.

Jennelle Fisher was a guest. At the City's Volunteer Luncheon last week the following Kiwanians were honored: Jerry Jambazian, Peggy Miller, Steve Montesanti, Chuck "Santa" Souder, Jim Robuck, and Willy Wei. We trust that Bill Hohl is doing well after gall bladder surgery. My apologies for the lateness of this weeks Bulletin.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

We honored one outstanding student from the Dr. Doug Sears Learning Center. Accompanying Han were Principal Stephen Edo and Mrs. Lois Billings. Han's teachers are Mr. Rios, Mrs. Billings, Mr. Patterson, and Mr. Jahan.

Han Duong is 17 years old and has a younger brother and two sisters. She enjoys reading, writing and making videos on her computer. Han said, "The best things about CLC is the small campus, interesting teachers, and I get to learn at my own pace." The best thing that ever happened was going to Japan during her summer and winter breaks. Personal goals are to end global warming, build a wildlife reserve, graduate from CLC, get into a good college, and to continue in her father's company.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"Dedicate some of your life to others. Your dedication will not be a sacrifice. It will be an exhilarating experience because it is an intense effort applied toward a meaningful end." - Dr. Thomas Dooleye

See you Tuesday, Jerry
