PROGRAM

Jim Enkelaar has arranged a program which will bring us Linda and Melissa presenting a video on the Los Angeles County Fair, an annual event.

"2003, THE LOS ANGELES COUNTY FAIR"

LAST WEEK

Dr. Joan Hillard, Temple City Superintendent of Schools, was anxious to tell us everything about them. Yr. Ed. had to leave at 1:48 to make a 2:00 p.m. appointment. The rehab and reconstruction takes a lot of bucks. The idiots who turn water onto oak floors should be turned over to the sadist Satay Hussein or his duplicate. Joan's door is open, if you have an hour. The District is covered by $10,000 deduction policy. Joan gave us the word on the crumbling bleachers - aluminum coming. Just how do they get all that bond money from 1998 to do so much?

Dan Snell introduced realtor George Ruda. Pres. Bob announced that the Youmans Dynasty will come to an end on April 29 - So long, Rosemarie, Youmans family, and crew. Fortunately, the site is a little too large for a bridal shop. Ray Gudie prayed at the annual Altadena Club's Pray-in. A revival of the San Marino Club is taking place. Jerry Jambazian will get into the bulletin the strange meeting days.

JERRY'S STUDENTS-OF-THE-MONTH

My Goodness! What a Day! Three outstanding students from Longden, brought by teacher Mrs. Marcelle Ferguson. Also, four students were recognized from the CLC for turning their life in the right direction.

It was especially nice to have Dr. Joan Hillard there to witness the special recognition given to the students.

Dr. Doug Sears, principal at the CLC finally given Honorary Member status. It was brought to my attention that CLC teacher Mr. Rod Kingry, then at Oak Avenue, was also a Honorary Member.

Honored students from Longden were: Jason Chan, Connie Peng, and Aimee Hernandez. Students from the CLC were: Monica Chong, James Loiacano, Michael Maguire, and Eileen Avila (who was honored in absentia).

Dr. Sears is also proud that the CLC has been accredited again as a California Model School. Congratulations CLC!

BIRTHDAY

April 27 Steve Montesanti

SICK CALL

Lou Merritt's kidney problem is nearing a favorable end. Norm Tyre's son (John) had an angioplasty, according to my spy.

BAD NEWS FROM THE FRONT

The Iraq Shiites are taking themselves back to the 6th century and saying to us, get out. Rule of the majority then escalates into another Taliban? We have give them the Afghanistan treatment? Next year's budget for Afghanistan relief: -0-. Promises, promises.

OUR PALS. THE MEDICOS

Patient: "I've never read the Hippocratic Oath - but I think it's against poverty."

See you Tuesday!
