MAY 7, 2013 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 74 NO. 30

THIS TUESDAY

Program Chairman for May is Henry Walpus and he will tell all about his life and heritage.

LAST TUESDAY

Sixteen Kiwanis members and three guests enjoyed a guided tour of Athens Services in La Puente.

Many thanks to Dan Snell and Ed Chen for arranging this great field trip. Ed is the Government Affairs Director for many SGV and Orange County cities.

Everyone had a great time touring the 20 acres. Athens operates 24 hours a day sorting through tons and tons of trash from 21 different cities they service, including Temple City. They employ over 500 people and tons of trucks powered by diesel and CNG.

After our tour we were treated by Athens to one of the best Mexican restaurants I have been to. Amour Indio restaurant served us very well with the flavors of old Mexico.

Athens of course bought Community Disposal from our member Chet Otting about 20 years ago. Chet gave so much to our community along with Harlos Gross. Athens has followed that business plan and gives to various community organizations including Kiwanis. They recently conducted two successful free compost give-a-ways in Temple City with citizens lined up to get the nutrient rich soil amendment.

Athens' mini-trash-truck is a favorite with children at parades and festivals throughout the San Gabriel Valley including our own Camellia Festival. The mini-truck, "Mighty Mike," in conjunction with the Company's recycling display and information booth, help residents and businesses to recognize ways to help improve our environment.

Jim Robuck is getting stronger after getting a new valve for his heart from a pig. He is being taken good care of by his nurse Cheryl. Mike Miller and Sue Matchett paid a visit to wish him a speedy recovery.

The nominating committee submits the following slate of candidates for the 2013-2014 Kiwanis year beginning October 1. President-Frank Deckon, Vice President-Sue Matchett, Treasurer-Matt Smith, Directors: Mike Lepore, Steve Montesanti, Bob Rodenbucher, Jim Robuck, Dan Snell, and Richard Wenzel. The Secretary will be appointed by the new board. Nominations from the floor will be taken at the May 7 meeting.

KIWANIS KALANDAR
