MAY 8, 2012 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 73 NO. 32

THIS TUESDAY

Guy Souther is the Area Director for Chili's Bar & Grill. He started his career with Chili's in 1986 and was manager of the Monrovia location in 1989. He is the Area Director for 8 restaurants in the area.

LAST TUESDAY

Guy Souther is the Area Director for Chili's Restaurants. He started his career at the Monrovia Chili's in 1987. He has been in his current role since 1993 with 8 restaurants.

The restaurant business has been on a roller coaster for 10 years. In 2005 Chili's opened 150 new restaurants. They had 8 different concept restaurants at that time, now they only have 2. In 1983 their menu consisted of 7 different burgers and 1 salad. Over 17,000 restaurants closed last year. Now when people go out to eat they want value and price. The bell weather of how well a restaurant does is unemployment and gasoline. The reason you don't see to many seniors at Chili's is their demographics 18-45. They make the most money on alcohol, not food. They want to open in Alhambra and Pasadena. We offered them Las Tunas and Rosemead.

We will hold our annual election of officers this Tuesday for the 2012-2013 Kiwanis year which will begin October 1. A get well card was signed for Marie Leonard. Temple City Kiwanis was honored for volunteer service at the annual luncheon. Attending were Rich Wenzel, Jerry Backstrom, Jerry J, Steve Montesanti, and Dan Arrighi. We were given a $25 gift card for Petrillo's. Pres. Rich will try to use it at DiPillas.

Let Pres. Rich know if you have items for the Italian basket that will raffled off on May 10 during the Governor's official visit. Bob Rodenbucher will be frying up some fish on Saturday at the Annual Sportsmen Club dinner at Arcadia Center near Methodist Hospital. Is there a reason the fish fry is so close to the hospital? Photo to the right are members wearing their hats. Mike Miller of course won the prize. May 12 is the Annual Postal Food Drive to benefit People For People. Workers needed from 12-6 p.m.

Jerry Backstrom passed out his Awards of Excellence for the Flapjack Fundraiser. Tony Straub as Doorman, Sue Matchett as Best in Beverages, Jim Robuck as Best Food Handler, Steve Montesanti as Best Server, Rich Wenzel with Floor Management. Jerry Backstrom is to be congratulated for "stepping out of the box" with this project and raising $270 for the club.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

We honored two outstanding students from Oak Avenue Intermediate School Pictured with the proud students is 8th grade U.S. History teacher Jessica Goold.

Jordan is 13 years old and in Ms. Michelle Wray's class. She has two older sisters and enjoys playing the piano, baking and cooking. Jordan said, "The best things about Oak are the awesome teachers who make school fun, all my friends who are always encouraging and fun, and the great learning experience." The best thing that ever happened was being promoted from Emperor and getting a science award. If she could change one thing it would be that people would stop discriminating and judging others. Personal goals are to build a submarine, be a good friend, change someone's life for good, and become a person with good moral character.

David is 14 years old and in Ms. Michelle Wray's class. He has an older brother and enjoys swimming, tennis, video games, and debating. David said, "The best things about Oak are the library, the teachers are the best I have had so far, and the computer lab." The best thing that ever happened was getting his first art award in the 2nd grade. If he could change one thing it would be end world hunger because no one deserves to starve. Personal goals are to build an automobile that could travel anywhere including underwater and space, become more organized, become a top student, and keep himself healthy.

KIWANIS KALANDAR

May 10 - Official visit of California-Nevada-Hawaii Governor at Almanson Court.

May 12 - Postal Food Drive, workers are needed at the Post Office from 2-6 p.m.

May 15 - Lucillin Quan will speak about escrows between family and friends.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"If you wish success in life, make perseverance your bosom friend, experience your wise counselor, caution your elder brother and hope your guardian genius." - Joseph Addison

See you Tuesday, Jerry
