LAST WEEK

Lt. Ron Williams with the LA County Sheriff's Identity Theft Division gave all the facts. In 1999 there were 645 ID theft's, in 2005, 6,132. Just last year 10 million Americans had their Identity stolen. The average loss is $2,500 and takes more than 600 hours to clear your record. With only 10 investigators, not all theft cases will be taken care of. When credit card companies suffer a loss of over 1%, they send out more credit card offers to make up the difference.

Check out <http://www.optoutprescreen.com> to stop some of those annoying and dangerous credit card offers. Also, ask for a "Security Freeze" from your credit reporting company.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Cloverly teacher, Mr. Ron Lee brought 3 great students. Judy Call was also there with Kassandra sporting her new glasses.

Jonathan Luu is in Mrs. Sander's class and enjoys reading, listening to music, and computers. The best things about school are the great fun friends, all the activities, and good teachers.

Jannie Guan is in Mrs. Wenzel's class and enjoys playing basketball and tennis. The best things about school are her friends, the awesome teachers, and library. Goals are to have world peace, more play parks, get good grades, get an iPod, and laptop computer

Eric Quach is in Mr. Lee's class and enjoys computers, video games, drawing, and hanging out with his friends. Eric likes his teachers, friends, math, moving to Temple City, to be on the Honor Roll, get good grades, and becoming a successful person.

SLATE OF OFFICERS

In true Kiwanis style, the following slate of officers were duly railroaded elected: The winning team of Elmer Black; President, Mike Lepore; VP, Mike Miller; Treasurer. Directors are John Gera, Bill Hohl, Jerry Jambazian, Jim Robuck, Chuck Souder, Dan Snell, and Bob Tyler.

The photo on the right is our own Treasurer, Mike Miller who looks like he was training for ATF. The guy with the moustache looks like he might be one of mine.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR A COMMUNITY PROJECT

The Woman's Club of Temple City is deeding their clubhouse and property to the Historical Society. Your museum which currently in located at Live Oak Park will be moving to the clubhouse. We need volunteers to help us document and pack items, clean, paint and move. If you can volunteer some time, please call the museum 626-279-1784 and leave your name and phone number.
