PROGRAM

Bob Tyler has assured us that he has arranged for a speaker to speak. The only problem is that Bob dutifully put on his calendar the cryptic note for the ages "Speaker."

LAST WEEK

Poor Pres. Mike tried to buy back that pink jacket. Possibly Jerry J. found that the item messed up his expensive machinery. It was enough that he had to preside over the BBQ planning. Jerry J. didn't get his $25 ticket being appropriate for a fund raiser. He came away with a grumbling $20. Kids to stay at $7 and no $1.00 rebates. Bob Tyler sang the praises of Oak Avenue, but for now it's at the High School. We still will have the old troupers, Elmer Black (corn); Dan Snell (taters); and Jerry's beans, etc.

ELECTION RESULTS

Everyone was elected, except for two in the directors' category, who would be very capable directors. Yr. Ed's guess is that the demands on their work in evening hours might make them not always available.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Cloverly Principal Mr. Doug Walters brought two great students.

Cynthia Quezada is 11 years old and in Ms. Tenney's 6th grade class. Cynthia likes soccer and softball. Her goals are to pass language arts, become a better person, and to be better at sports.

Andrew Truong is 12 years and in Mrs. Stokes 6th grade class. Andrew enjoys basketball and football. The best things about school are making new friends, learning new things, and the nice teachers.

PEOPLE FOR PEOPLE

May 8. (Saturday) Jim Enkelaar and Yr. Ed. have reached a consensus and it's 2:00 p.m. which is when you should show up at the post office. If you can't make it, 2:30 will not be too late.

JEWISH HUMOR

Yr. Ed. fearlessly gets into politics or religion. His Jewish friend came up with:

A poor tailor came to a Chassidic Rabbi the day after the Day of Atonement and said to him. "Yesterday I had an argument with God." I told him 'Oh God, you have committed grave sins and I have committed sins, but you have created grave sins and I have committed sins of no great importance. What have you done? You have separated mothers from their children and permitted people to starve. What have I done? I have sometimes failed to deliver all of a piece of cloth to a customer or have not been strict in the observance of the law. But I will tell you, God. I will forgive you your sins and you forgive me mine. Thus we are even". Whereupon the Rabbi answered, "You fool! Why did you let him get away so easily? Yesterday you could have forced him to send the Messiah!"

See you Tuesday,
