THIS TUESDAY

Henry Walpus says Dr. Manley will be speaking, but we don't know what he will be speaking about. Stay tuned for further details or be surprised by Denny's, the program chairman, or the speaker.

LAST TUESDAY

It is still true. Some of the best programs are by our own members.

Henry Walpus gave us a glimpse of what it was like to be separated from your family for two years while growing up in Prussia. He was reunited with his family in 1947 in a Swedish Refuge camp. He immigrated to America in 1948 and became a citizen in 1953.

Henry has many memories of his homeland, some good, and some not so good including 450,000 soldiers who died in the war.

Guest of the Club was Mark Cheng from IRN Realty Network. Mark graduated from the other school (UCLA) in computer science. He found the errors of his ways and decided to join his family's real estate business in Arcadia. Also Linda Walpus was there to check up on our speaker.

Mr. Happy, AKA Mike Miller and his successor Matt Smith celebrated their anniversary in Kiwanis. You can easily tell them apart by the one who has not lost possession of the checkbook.

Six of our members had a great time providing a barbecue for the girls and staff of Maryvale. Dawn Peri is pictured presenting an appreciation certificate to President Jerry Backstrom. Members helping were Bob Rodenbucher, John Gera, Mike Lepore, Jerry Jambazian, and Richard Wenzel. The girls and staff were very appreciative of our culinary efforts and thanked us many times.

The Postal Workers food drive to benefit People For People will take place this Saturday. Postal carriers will be returning from their routes with all the food stuffs in the afternoon. Our members along with the Key Club will be sorting and transporting the food to People For People to be distributed to needy families. Please be at the Post Office on Oak Avenue at 2 p.m. if you can help.

Jim Robuck is getting stronger after getting a his own valve (not one from a pig) repaired along with a hole in his heart. Jim is looking great, still getting a little short of breath but was able to make the Board Meeting last Tuesday. We were doing okay until he showed us his scar. Our Lt. Governor Bob Lagunas made his official visit at our Board Meeting and seemed to be pleased. He also encouraged us to attend the official visit of Governor Gary Jander at a luncheon on June 15 at Luminarias Restaurant in Monterey Park.

The nominating committee submits the following slate of candidates for the 2013-2014 Kiwanis year beginning October 1. President-Frank Deckon, Vice President-Sue Matchett, Treasurer-Matt Smith, Directors: Mike Lepore, Steve Montesanti, Bob Rodenbucher, Mike Miller, Jim Robuck, Dan Snell, and Richard Wenzel. The Secretary will be appointed by the new board but you have to be Italian.

At the May 7 meeting no further nominations were received and the membership declared that the slate of candidates be confirmed. Toot, Toot!!

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"Finance is the art of passing money from hand to hand until it finally disappears."

-- Robert W. Sarnoff

See you Tuesday, Jerry
