THIS TUESDAY

Norene Rand from People For People will give us the latest on their efforts to help the less fortunate. We support People For People financially.

LAST WEEK

Russell & Steffanie Ferris shared their missionary work in East Africa for 2 1/2 years. They were in Nairobi, Kenya where there is 60% unemployment, and 40% of the people in slum areas are HIV positive. They were helping disadvantaged children. There are 42 tribes in Kenya, speaking primarily English, if they don't speak English they speak Swahili. Kenya is a modern city with headquarters for the U.N.

Steffanie just happens to be the granddaughter of Dan and June Snell.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Emperor teacher, Miss. Parrille brought 3 great students to be honored.

Leene Feidi is in Miss. Parrille's class and enjoys soccer, math, and figuring out puzzles. Best things about school are the teachers, rules, and friends. Goals are to get straight A's, get a good education, and a nice house.

Annie Lee is in Ms. Carlson's class and enjoys reading, computer, drawing, music, singing, and playing the piano. Best things about school are the teachers and staff are really nice wonderful, helpful and fun. Goals are to get good grades, go to a university, and make more friends.

Laura Pulone is in Mr. Giangregorio's class and enjoys computers, caring for her dog, outdoor activities, and traveling. Best things about school are the caring teachers, fun activities, and P.E.. Best thing that ever happened was winning a Young Author Award from Barnes & Noble and having her book in the library in 2nd grade.

KEY CLUB NEWS

Key Club President, Jessica Tang, sent a thank you letter to our club. In part she said, "I believe it was a once in a lifetime opportunity for me, and I tried my best to learn as much as I could from the other officers and clubs. However, if it were not for your contribution, I never would have had the opportunity to go."

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR COMMUNITY PROJECTS

The annual Letter Carriers Food Drive will be taking place this Saturday, May 13 from 2 to 5 p.m.. We need volunteers to help unload the food stuffs as it comes in to the Post Office and load it on the truck to be delivered to People For People. If you can help, contact Mike Miller. He cannot drive a truck, he can't backup and he only knows how to make left turns.

The Woman's Club of Temple City is deeding their clubhouse and property to the Historical Society. Your museum which currently in located at Live Oak Park will be moving to the clubhouse. We need volunteers to help us document and pack items, clean, paint and move. If you can volunteer some time, please call the museum 626-279-1784 and leave your name and phone number.
