PROGRAM

Nick Gladis will discuss the Temple City Historical Society's plans to acquire the Women's Club. His topic thus is:

"PRESERVING OUR PAST"

LAST WEEK

Ken Mallory modestly spoke about the G.I.'s life in the awful part of the Bulge, and the multiple hazards as they held and then had to advance to the Rhine, get to the other side and go up the steep bluff to get at the Germans. Ken was Bill Mauldin's kind of G.I., miserably cold and wet with leather boots and dark clothes (while the Germans had white in the snow.)

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Emperor teacher Mary Singer brought 4 happy students who were eager to receive their awards.

Katie Bell is in Mr. G's class and enjoys drawing, designing, shopping, swimming, and gymnastics. She likes the really cool teachers, and awesome Principal.

Taylor Evanko is in Ms. Carlson's class and likes baseball and running. He is lucky to have so many friends. He wants excellent grades, be good at baseball.

Kevin Au is in Mr. Turner's class and enjoys basketball, his friends, and teachers. He would like to build the tallest building, get good grades, go to college, and have a great career.

Hiba Ahmad is in Mrs. Singer's class and enjoys reading, the nice teachers, the playground equipment. Best thing was being accepted to the GATE Program (Gifted And Talented Education).

PRES. JOHN SAYS

1. CONGRATULATIONS to our newly elected officers and board for 2005-2006. Special congrats to our incoming president, Jim Enkelaar.

2. REMINDER: Saturday May 14, we are to assist in the "Letter Carriers" food drive. Please meet at the Temple City post office (loading dock area) between 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. As the carriers return from their routes, we assemble items for transport to People for People in San Gabriel. Yr. Ed. says that Bob Tyler urged a good turnout in the late afternoon.

3. ASSISTANCE NEEDED. Our program chair (Mike Lepore) is in need of programs especially in the months of June and August. Please contact Mike if you can help.

TRUE CONFESSION

Former Kiwanian Mike Eisner, who now lives in the Central Valley, called your Ed to announce that he now has an attorney there and he confessed that he has joined a 100 member Rotary Club.

Speaking of Rotary, the New York Times recently had an editorial praising service club activities and in particular, credited Rotary with the worldwide wiping out of polio.

CLARENCE DARROW SAID IT

Long ago, "When I was told that anybody could become President; I'm beginning to believe it."
