Mayor Cathé Wilson and City Attorney/City Manager Charlie Martin present the State of Temple City

LAST TUESDAY

Dorothy Yen, Key Club Governor of Cal-Nev-Ha made her official visit.

Our Key Club has had 7 years of outstanding leadership under the watchful eye of Mike Miller. How fortunate are we to have the Governor and Lt. Governor from Temple City High School. There are over 34,000 Key Club members in our District.

Dorothy has given leadership ever since she was at Oak Avenue School where she helped start the Builders Club. Dorothy has traveled extensively while in office visiting Kiwanis International in Indianapolis; Orlando Florida; Dallas Texas; Hawaii and Las Vegas.

TC Key Club has won many awards. 3 years as Distinguished Club receiving the Diamond Award this year. 13 members from TC attended the convention.

Dorothy is a senior at TC High and will be graduating next month. She will be attending San Diego State University where she will waste no time getting involved in Circle K. Who knows? Someday she just may be Kiwanis International President.

OTHER INTERESTING STUFF

Dan Snell led a contingent of the following members to Monterey Park for an Interclub, Jim Enkelaar, John Gera, and Tony Straub. We wish a speedy recovery to Bill Hohl who has been feeling dizzy.
