LAST WEEK

Nick and Nancy Gladis talked about the moving of the Temple City Historical Society from Live Oak Park to the Women's Club in downtown Temple City. Nancy traced the history of what is now Temple City. Yr. Ed. says that the Chamber of Commerce has a History of Temple City. It says that Pliny Fisk Temple came to Massachusetts in 1636. Jonathan was Pliny's oldest brother. Of prime interest to Temple City was Walter Temple. He laid out the park facing Las Tunas Drive.

LETTER CARRIERS FOOD DRIVE ON MAY 14

Jim Enkelaar carefully gave us the details, as follows:

Six Kiwanians worked 5 hours each, they being Pres. John Gera, Bill Hohl, Mike Miller, Dan Snell, Bob Tyler, and Jim himself. Temple City High School helped sort food. 6,932 pounds of food filled 16 gunneys.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Super students Anthony Salazar Dekle and Erin Hernandez were brought by teachers Mr. Reggie Rios and Mrs. Carolyn Roozee.

Anthony enjoys movies, outdoor activities, football, and baseball. The best things about the CLC are the staff, opportunity to learn at your own pace, and the great learning environment.

Erin enjoys writing, reading, cooking and showing Jim Robuck how you should sing. Personal goals Erin is striving for is to earn her B.A. from APU, play "Christine" in Phantom of the Opera, and teach choral music in elementary or high school. Come to the CLC graduation on June 20th and enjoy Erin singing.

PRES. JOHN GERA SAYS:

"Kiwaniis Polo Shirts are now available. For those who signed up for a shirt, they will be available at the luncheon meetings. For those who did not order, we have extras available. Please see Mike Lepore or Pres. John for the shirts. Cost: $25.00.

The Sefton Foundation board met Tuesday May 17, 2005. All officers and members will continue for the next two years. The financial status is healthy. If you know of any candidate for a loan, please have the candidate contact Mike Miller or Chuck Shaw."
