PROGRAM

Nick and Nancy Gladis, from the Temple City Historical Society will present:

"The History of Temple City"

LAST WEEK

That bundle of energy, Linda Payne, told us how the City and the Chamber of Commerce are supporting the biz community. Membership has gone from 138 members to 228, and includes the Star News and hospitals. That's, um, terrific. More owner-operators are needed. 25% of school kids are learning English at private schools but they don't add to the retail store mix.

Bridal shops were said to be not a problem; one gets the feeling that they are yesterday's worry. Linda wasn't certain for how long she could devote all that time and energy to the chamber.

Mike Lepore helped to fill some of the empty seats by bringing Natalie Buliach, who toils at Century 21 - Village, and Marie Daikovich, loan officer at World Savings. Sherri Van Cleave made a pitch for $$$ to help send her daughter (Linda) to the People to People sort of Olympics. This is not to be confused with People for People. A highly placed Kiwanian, when asked by Yr. Ed., predicted that the club will not support it. Now if she would just parachute Linda, wearing a flight jacket, to the deck of an aircraft carrier, she could buy Temple City. See War Stories, below. Mike Lepore hopes that he has four members lined up for the inter-club with San Gabriel. Attendees' names next edition.

SICK CALL

Dan Snell advised the club at our last meeting, that Lou Merritt will go to the hospital for twin surgery: Hernia and enlarged prostate (removal of the latter).

Elmo came to our last meeting thanks to Norm. The chemo slows Elmo down a little.

WAR STORIES

It was also somewhat disheartening to read, in the L.A. times that the Jessica "rescue" was, according to the BBC, a hoax. This month's Harper's index reveals that the U.S. Air Force has spent $14,835 for a "nostalgic juke box" and $4,896 for cowboy hats. Thank you, Harper's, we like to see our tax dollars at work. My own take since most of the troops are about 19 years old the really nostalgic types must be armchair generals.

Then there is the American Enterprise Institute which has weighed in with "Every ten years or so, the United States needs to pick up some crappy little country and throw it against the wall, just to show the world we mean business.

See you Tuesday,
