JUNE 1, 2004 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 67 NO. 35

PROGRAM

Susan Perez will tell us about the Red Cross and what it can do about chemical attacks or accidents and what the Red Cross can do when catastrophes are suddenly with us.

LAST WEEK

Every inch the musician and charming gentleman, was our friend, John Schiavo, who treated us to the wondrous sounds he can get out of his bass cello. He also told us about the somewhat careless cellist, to whom a $1,300,000 instrument was restored.

The Royal Court wrote our Club, thanking us for the chocolates we gave them.

Jim Enkelaar gave us the Dutch version of the congratulatory letter from Kiwanis International for our Club's 65 years of continued community service.

A card was circulated for Ray Gudie who is going through some rough times. We wish the best for Ray and Phyllis during this difficult period.

DENTAL IDENTIFICATION COMPLETED

Dr. Jack Von Bulow said the mouths of hundreds of Temple City youth are now in the mouth identity file. He thanked our Kiwanis Club, and in particular Jerry J.

VITAL STATISTICS

May 11 is Natalie Bulaich's birthday and we'll say no more.

June 6 is Jim the Robuck natal day. Natalie can't have all the fun. Jim is twelve or 102, or something else. Yr. Ed's next one will be 205.

SUPPORT OUR TROOPS

Sharon Johnson came to our meeting and proposed that a Las Tunas banner to be sponsored by Kiwanis. It won't be at Temple City Blvd., but nearer to Rosemead. Our Board will act on it. Yr. Ed observes that the National Guardsmen reserves are given a bad shuffle.

As the May 10 article in the Los Angeles Times pointed out, "Nearly 40% of the troops in the Iraq occupation are reservists or National Guardsmen - the highest percentage of 'weekend warriors' ever called to war."

The pity of it all is that brave men and women are put in harm's way because of the actions of a procession of dunderheads, and that includes a majority of U. S. Supreme Court members who decided that they should elect a president.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

July 17 Our Annual Barbeque. This time at Oak Avenue.

August 6-9 Cal-Nev-Ha Convention, Las Vegas.

AND IN CONCLUSION

"If this is coffee, please bring me some tea; but if this is tea please bring me some coffee." Abe Lincoln

"Reality is a crutch for people who can't cope with drugs" Lily Tomlin

See you Tuesday,
