JUNE 5, 2007 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 70 NO. 23

THIS TUESDAY

One thing about retirement...it does not last long. After 32 years working with the Camellia Festival and a visit from the intrepid Jim Enkelaar, she just could not resist.

Marie will give us the history of working with over 100,000 children promoting the best hometown parade just for kids.

We just might have our two newest members give a brief bio about themselves.

LAST TUESDAY

We attempted to fine tune the upcoming Barbeque. I have talked to God, and reminded Him that a few more people would be nice, and while You are at it, anything under 100 degrees would be appreciated. He said OK.

It's official. Under protest from Mr. Happy #1 and #2, we held an election and Chuck Shaw will be known hereafter as Mr. Happy #3.

John Chandler circulated a supplement magazine to the LA Times which had a photo of him and the Sisters at Maryvale Orphanage.

Mike Lepore's grand daughter, who is a student at the University of Hawaii almost made it to the girls softball championship. She had a double and a home run.

INTERCLUB NEWS

Jim Enkelaar, together with his trusty index card is giving us another opportunity to interclub. Thursday, June 7th we will visit the Pasadena club which is located somewhere near the University Club and Fuller Seminary.

July 19th we will do the same with San Marino. When Jim was informed by Mr. Happy #1 that we do not receive the Round Robin Patch unless we visit a club outside the division. To save us from possibly traveling to the Netherlands, Mr. Happy #2 has graciously agreed to set up an interclub with El Monte.

BLUE STAR DINNER

Sharon Johnson, who heads up the Blue Star Banner Program has invited us to a free dinner Friday, June 1st, First Baptist Church at 6:30 p.m.

Since we are designating some of the proceeds of the BBQ to this program, we should have an easy time selling some tickets to this captive audience. Please bring tickets to sell.

Jim Robuck made his appearance on the stage of life, and on cue June 6th
The other Jim (Enkelaar) will celebrate his birthday on June 8th.
