PROGRAM

Theo. P.J. van der Linden (one of Jim Enkelaar homies), Chairman of the Board of our TC Chamber of Commerce will be speaking about his daytime job, The Sun-Bridge Care Center for Temple City. He will tell us what we wanted to know about elder care.

What should we charge for BBQ tickets? The general membership is to decide. At the Director's meeting there were two factions, Mike Miller said there had been no change in 10 years and it was supposed to be a fund raiser. Bob Tyler's take was "No way, Jose," that we will not sell as many tickets.

The Board of Directors voted to increase the adult ticket prices from $15 to $20. Kids from $7.50 to $10. The Directors had consensus, but it was agreed that the full membership would decide whether it should be increased, stay the same or something in between. It took the Board 20 minutes to worry about it so tell your spouse you may be late for supper, and if things really get bad, late for breakfast. You be the Judge.

LAST WEEK

No meeting but the Directors met. Yr. Ed. went to Alhambra at Almanson Court. There were about a dozen. I looked in at Rotary (about 70). The Exchange Club (about 100). The "election" of officers was interesting. The Chairman picked all the offices by designating them from the podium. Some seemed somewhat surprised.
