"THE CAMELLIA CLUB"
TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA
Chartered August 8, 1939

JUNE 10, 2008 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 71 NO. 24

THIS TUESDAY

Our own James (Jacobus) Enkelaar comes through with another great program. John L. Griffiths, is an international marketing and educational consultant. He has experience as a career diplomat in Latin America directing a wide range of educational exchange and cultural programs. The title of his message is: US Diplomacy, Then and Now

LAST TUESDAY

Jim Enkelaar read the story of Johtje Vos who recently passed away. She sheltered Jews in wartime Holland, saving 36. Jim also told of his personal account as an eleven year old in Holland and how his preacher father helped shelter 32 Jews from the German army.

John Gera reported on his Alaskan cruise. The weather was a great 75 degrees. The "Elmo Scholarship" was presented at the CLC Senior Awards. The TCHS Senior Awards will be this Monday. Kiwanis Scholarships will be presented to Dorothy Yen and Jessica Tang. Special awards will also be presented from Cal-Nev-Ha.

We have possibly found a new way to recruit new members. Mike Miller will conveniently lose the checkbook each week until we find someone who finds it, feels sorry for us and wants to join.

Dan Snell is on an extended trip to somewhere in South America and won't return until July.

The middle photo is of Sue Matchett who picked the losing card in the weekly drawing. Better luck next time Sue.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Cloverly School was honored this week with 2 great students. Cloverly teacher, Mrs. Phyllis Nuszer was the escort.

Jack Sun is in Mr. Turner's class and enjoys science experiments, building things, reading books, playing video games, math, and doing research on the internet. Jack said, "Cloverly has the best education, helpful teachers, librarians, technology, food, and the Principall!". Jack has goals of attending Caltech, Harvard, Stanford, or Princeton. He would like to be a scientist or mathematician and make lots of money.

Philbert Tjong is in Mrs. Wenzel's class and enjoys reading, technology, and riding a bike. The best things about Cloverly is the visually impaired class, friendly people, and it is a safe place. Philbert said, "The best things that ever happened was winning this award". Personal goals are have more Braille books available, build a machine to help the blind see, get better grades, go to college, and to work at Humanware (a company that makes products for the blind).

BOARD HAPPENINGS

Barbecue Chairman John Gera wants to go on record that we will be serving shoulder clod for the beef. It has not been determined where said beef will come from. Tickets will be available before July 19th. We will have a "last minute" meeting on Tuesday, July 15.

Installation of the new Board will be on September 30th. We are in the process of sending out a scouting team to select a venue. If you have any ideas let Chuck Souder know.
