"THE CAMELLIA CLUB"
TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA
Chartered August 8, 1939

JUNE 17, 2008 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 71 NO. 25

THIS TUESDAY

To bad Dan Snell is somewhere in South America. We will be talking about one of his favorite subjects, Floats. Richard Ashworth with the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Association will be speaking about the history and the tradition of the 2 greatest events to start the year, The Rose Parade and the opportunity to see SC win in the Rose Bowl again.

LAST TUESDAY

John Griffith told of his days serving as a Public Diplomat. The United Sates Information Agency was formed in 1953 by President Eisenhower.

Mr. Griffith spent most of his time in South America. He stated that he has been a Republican all his life, but he does not support the current foreign policy.

OTHER HAPPENINGS

Our expert investigative team consisting of Team Leader Judy Lepore spotted Chuck Shaw and a certain young lady at the Sizzler.

Mike Lepore reports that the Barbeque tickets are ready. Now all we have to do is get them before July 19th.

President Mike Lepore has set up an Interclub with South Pasadena on Wednesday, June 18th.

Bob Tyler paid some happy dollars and a bet with another member that finally paid off.

Ryan Tucker, a TC High Baseball standout who made it to the big leagues pitched the game of his life.

John Gera is in the process of distributing the Barbecue tickets. Pay close attention to his words in the insert.

Tom McIntee and Marie Leonard were in the audience during the taping of Family Feud. He will let us know when it airs in July. Your editor won about $6,000 30 years ago on the same program.

Dorothy Cunningham with the Pasadena Star will be joining us soon. Bob Tyler has made the contact that will eventually help us to get known in the area.

At the TCHS Senior Awards on June 9th, Dorothy Yen and Jessica Tang the dynamic duo from the Key Club received cash scholarships from our club along with the Cal-Nev-Ha Foundation. Mike Miller and Richard Olmstead presented the Kenneth C. Ferror M.D. Scholarship and the Frank C. Vincent Memorial Scholarship. Congratulations to 2 great ladies that have served Kiwanis very well.

Elmer Black and his daughter Janet made the Pasadena Star News with a photo of them at the Caverns Inn in Arizona while on their way to the Grand Canyon.

CLC will have their 15th Annual Commencement on Monday at 6:30 p.m.. La Rosa field.
